MAY NEED NEW TROOPS

Strikers About Hazleton Taunting the Militiamen.

VIOLENT ACTS, WOMEN HELPING.

Some of the Raiders Reported to Be Men in Dresses—Democratic State Chairman Garman to Help Prosecute Sheriff Martin—A Mysterious Arrest.

HAZLETON, Pa., Sept. 18.—The strike situation may be summarized thus: Over 10,000 men are still out, with no apparent prospect of settlement; sporadic outbreaks of violence are occurring near the outlying collieries, and the withdrawal of troops is not only without consideration, but the guard lines of several of the camps are being constantly strengthened, and the wisdom of bringing more cavalry is being discussed. Colonel Case of the Fourth regiment and Colonel Magee of the Eighth are both complaining of lack of cavalry to cover the large extent of territory under their commands, and it was said that if the soldiers are kept here much longer the Sheridan troop of Tyrone, attached to the Second brigade, will be ordered out.

A captain of General Gobin's staff is authority for the statement that an uneasy feeling prevails at headquarters, in consequence of the little outbreaks of the past few days and the indication they hold of the underlying disturbance. The brigade commander himself admitted that the action of the raiding women was giving him much perplexity. He does not care to use force against them and has instructed the soldiers in case of necessity to use only the flats of their sabers upon the amazons. The story reached the general that many men were in the attacking crowds disguised as women. The strikers no longer disperse when the troops appear in their territory and while a body of Eighth regiment officers were taking a look over the Honey Brook district, a burly Irish woman, who stood at the head of a crowd of foreign women and men, shouted to the captain: "Say, Cap, divide your guns with us and we'll give you a—of a fight."

The soldiers ignored the challenge. Similar taunts have been thrown at bodies of militia in the Drifton region as well.

Another violent scene has occurred at Audenreid. It arose from another attempt to start the Monarch and Star washeries of the Lehigh and Wilkes-Barre company. About 100 men reported for work at the former, when a band of women swooped down on them with an armament of sticks and stones. Others were stationed on top of an adjacent culm bank, whence they showered missiles upon the would-be workers and a large body of men and boys waited in reserve behind the bank.

The men promptly quit work before any injury could be inflicted. At the Star washery, where 100 of 135 men wanted to work, a like assault stopped them. No further attempt was made to work the Carson washery. A squad of the Governor's troop went there to quell the disturbance, but all was quiet when they arrived, except that the rabble of women hooted and cursed the military, who made no response. All the dynamite that can be found in the region about Cranberry is being collected and stored in Turnbach's powderhouse, to keep it from the hands of the miners, and 100 men from the Ninth regiment are guarding it.

The frequent excursions of the cavalry throughout the region were explained by an attaché of the general's staff, who said they were intended to familiarize the men with the mountainous country in the event of conditions which would stop the use of telegraph wires and trains. The request for troops made by Sheriff Scott of Schuylkill county was answered when General Gobin received a message from Governor Hastings authorizing him to quell riot wherever it occurred, heedless of county lines.

Deputy Colonel Bowman will begin the inquest over the bodies of the dead miners at 2 o'clock next Tuesday afternoon. These attorneys will be present: Robert D. Coxe of Philadelphia, for the Austrian consulate of that city; John T. Lenahan of Wilkes-Barre and George S. Ferris of Pittston, for Sheriff Martin, and John McGahren of Wilkes-Barre, for the prosecution. It is said that the Democratic state chairman, Garman, will also represent the prosecution. Over 100 witnesses will be examined. County Detective Eckert said that several of these are being kept in hiding. One of these was a deputy who did not take part in the shooting, but was hurrying to the scene when it occurred. This man says, according to the detective, that the deputies kept on shooting when the strikers were 200 yards away. Mr. Eckert added that the evidence of five of the wounded corroborates this allegation.

General Gobin will not interfere with tonight's big massmeeting unless highly colored speeches are made. The principal speakers are to be P. J. Maguire, vice president of the American Federation of Labor, and George Chance of the United Labor League. As a precautionary measure a guard of soldiers will be present. Organizer Fahey and other leaders have asked that the militia be withdrawn, and General Gobin has advised them that the speediest way to accomplish this will be to stop holding massmeetings and thereby exciting the people.

The only change in the strike situation proper was the return to work of the 500 men employed at Coxe's Beaver Meadow colliery. The miners say that this is only temporary and that if the other Coxe men, at Drifton and elsewhere, decide at their meeting of next Monday, to go out, the Beaver Meadow men will join them. There is a mysterious prisoner in the guard tent of the City troop. He was found working about the camp on Wednesday, and as he could give no explanation of his admission through the lines, nor a satisfactory account of himself, although keen and bright, Captain Groome ordered his arrest. He says that in the absence of an acceptable explanation he will keep the fellow in custody "until this war is over."

MORE MONEY FOR PENSIONS.

Commissioner Evans Thinks a Deficiency Appropriation Will Be Needed.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18.—Commissioner Evans of the pension bureau says that he thinks it will be necessary this year to ask congress for a deficiency appropriation on account of pensions. He said:

"I estimate that the total payments for the year will not exceed $147,500,000 and the appropriation for the year is $141,263,880. If there should be an unexpected falling off in the revenues, the pension payments might be curtailed toward the end of the year, although I do not think that it is at all likely."

The increased pension payments, he said, would be due chiefly to the fact that there are about 200,000 old claims pending which it is the intention of the bureau to adjudicate as rapidly as possible. The claims allowed probably would call for something like $5,000,000. There also has been a remarkable increase in the number of new pension applications, and these would increase expenditures largely. In answer to a suggestion that there might be a deficit in the treasury at the end of the fiscal year, the commissioner said that he had examined into the matter somewhat and was of the opinion that there would be a sufficient increase in the revenues before the year was over to prevent a deficit.

FREEMONTERS DEMAND THE SPOILS.

Think Old Soldiers Should Be Given Offices and Liberal Pensions.

PITTSBURG, Sept. 18.—The National Fremont association continued its reunion today.

Letters were read from President McKinley and members of his cabinet, the governors of various states and Senator Mark Hanna at the session yesterday. All expressed regrets at being unable to be present and wishing the organization success and a pleasant time.

A resolution opposed to civil service will be introduced and most likely passed. The resolutions also expressed the opinion that to the victor belongs the spoils, and that men who fought for the Union should be recognized in the distribution of offices and by liberal pensions.

NOT ALLOWED TO VOTE.

Hastings Refused to Restore Philadelphia's Right of Franchise.

HARRISBURG, Sept. 18.—Governor Hastings has refused to concur in the recommendation of the pardon board in the cases of Richard Hughes, James Cahill and Charles McConnell of Philadelphia. The applicants pleaded guilty Nov. 11, 1896, to an indictment charging them with making false returns as election officers of the Twelfth district of the Fourth ward at the general election held Nov. 5, 1895, and were sentenced to six months each in prison and deprived of the right of suffrage for four years.

The applicants served the full term of imprisonment and were discharged sometime ago. The application was to relieve them from the sentence "that they and each be deprived of the right of suffrage for the term of four years."

THE INDIANA ALL RIGHT.

Roosevelt Learns That Docking Damages were Very Slight.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18.—Acting Secretary Roosevelt has been making an investigation into the reports that the battleship Indiana was seriously injured in dock. He said on this point:

"The elaborate statements as to the injuries to the Indiana, due to her docking at Halifax, were reiterated with such circumstantiality that I finally telegraphed to find out whether there was any basis for them, and found there was not. The injuries sustained in the dock at Halifax consisted in the slight buckling of some of the plates, nowhere amounting to an inch and a half. So trivial was it that it did not cause the tiniest leak."

Saw Andree's Balloon.

St. PETERSBURG, Sept. 18.—A telegraphic message received here from Keano Yarsk, in the interior of Siberia, says that on Sept. 14, at 11 o'clock at night, the inhabitants of the village of Antzifrowskoye, in the district of Yeniseisk, Arctic Russia, saw a balloon, believed to be that of Prof. Andree.

FEVER BEGUN TO RAGE.

Calling Cases Merely Suspicious to Stop at Biloxi.

EIGHT MORE AT NEW ORLEANS.

People Continue to Leave That City in Small Parties—One Death Reported. Three New Cases at Ocean Springs. Nineteen at Biloxi.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 18.—The fever situation in New Orleans has assumed a somewhat more serious aspect than at any time since Sunday, when six cases were declared to be yellow fever. The board of health officially announces the appearance of eight new cases and of these one death, that of Seena Brauner. At the office of the board of health reports were considered somewhat surprising and disappointing.

People continue to leave in small parties, but there is nothing like the wild exodus that depopulated Mobile, Jackson, Miss., and other cities.

The situation was somewhat quieter at Ocean Springs, Miss. Three cases, however, were reported.

The report of the board of health at Biloxi, Miss., says that there are 19 cases of actual yellow fever under treatment, with diagnosis reserved as to 12 cases. There were seven new cases reported.

The doctors at Biloxi are tempted now no longer to class cases as suspicious, but to come out boldly and say that they are yellow fever.

The New Orleans board of health announced that many of the older cases of yellow fever that have been heretofore reported are rapidly progressing toward recovery.

A Yellow Fever Suspect.

MAYFIELD, Ky., Sept. 18.—Lizzie Bowena, a white woman, has died in the depot here. She was taken from a train and her death is said to be the result of yellow fever.

DIAZ'S ASSAILANT KILLED.

A Mob of Mexicans Avenged the Attack on Their President—Broke Into Jail and Riddled and Hacked Arroyo. Helpless in a Straight Jacket.

CITY OF MEXICO, Sept. 18.—A most sensational ending to the attempt on the life of President Diaz occurred when Arnulfo Arroyo was killed by a band of the common people determined on revenge. It was an act unprecedented in the history of this country. At 1 o'clock in the morning a number of men belonging to the common people forced their way into the municipal palace, ascended the stairway, overcame the guards and made their way to the office of the inspector general of police and killed Arnulfo Arroyo, whom they found there. The killing was a wild and savage scene and was followed by a wild and noisy retreat. The assistant chief of police, who was sleeping in an adjoining room, was awakened by the noise. He arose and ran to the balcony, firing his pistol as a signal for help.

At the same time he called to a policeman, who was in sight, to make an attempt to detain the avengers, who were making their escape. The firing of pistols and the whistles of policemen brought other officers, who succeeded in capturing a score of persons. It was not long before the inspector general and Inspector Villavicencio arrived on horseback. When the police entered the room they found the body of the dead man lying in the middle of the floor. It was literally riddled and hacked with knife stabs. At his side were found a door bar and several knives and other steel instruments. An examination showed that the panes of a window were broken. The men who were captured would not say anything.

When Arroyo was surprised by the mob he was sitting in a chair in the northeast corner of what once was General Carballedas' private office. There, mixed with fragments of window panes, was a long pool of blood marking the spot where Arroyo had been stabbed. The body was removed to the Fourth ward police station.

The gendarmes who were guarding Arroyo were unarmed. If they had been armed they would have fired on the mob.

Over 200 people penetrated the building. When they surprised Arroyo he was in a straight jacket and could make no resistance. He seemed too terrified to speak.

FOND OF A SERVANT GIRL.

The Prosecution Shows a Motive For Luetgert's Alleged Crime.

CHICAGO, Sept. 18.—The prosecution rested its case today after three weeks given to the presentation of evidence against Luetgert and four weeks spent in the trial.

The prosecution closed its case with some strong evidence tending to prove the motive for the alleged crime. The state endeavored to show that infatuation for Mary Simmering, the servant girl in the Luetgert household, was the cause of the murder. It was claimed that the big sausagemaker desired to make the girl his wife and that he put Mrs. Luetgert out of the way in order to permit his marriage with the girl. To prove this Frank Bialk and Frank Odorsky, employees of Luetgert who have already testified in the case, were put upon the stand and gave evidence relating to the domestic affairs of Luetgert. They testified as to the fondness of Luetgert for Mary Simmering and the indignant opposition to the girl's presence in the house made by Mrs. Luetgert.

TRADE CONTINUES TO GROW.

Dun Names Several Features—Miners at Work Helped.

NEW YORK, Sept. 18.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade issued today says: The end of the bituminous coal strike and the return of many thousand men to work at advanced wages adds to the purchasing power of the people and the anthracite strike affects not a fifth as many workers. The starting of many mines and works, the enormous exports of wheat and corn, the favorable news as to those crops and cotton, the fall in sterling exchange and the report showing that gold imports began in August exceeding exports by $2,390,587, while merchandise exports exceeded imports by $40,953,753, have all contributed to forward the improvement in business. The replenishment of stocks cannot be half finished, though some who could see no sign of improvement a few weeks ago are now finding it so vast and rapid that they fear reaction. But consumers as well as dealers have also to supply themselves after years of enforced economy. When the tide rises after four years of depression it does not fall again after four weeks.

The wheat market has declined over 5 cents on account of crop reports, which promise larger prosperity, and corn and cotton are both a little lower for like reasons. Atlantic exports of wheat, flour included, are more than double last year's. From the Pacific coast wheat is also moving largely. Corn declined over 3 cents with belief that the yield will surpass estimates. The iron industry again shows increasing demand, and an average of prices nearly 1 per cent higher, due to purchasing by consumers. Buying of 100,000 tons Bessemer pig at Pittsburgh has advanced the price to $10. Grey forge is hard to find there at $9.15 and billets sell at $15.50. With output increased to 122,431 tons weekly, Connellsville coke advanced to $1.40 for furnace.

Textile mills are more fully employed than at any other time for years, though now buying has diminished in amount, and though while the number of orders received is still large, the amount is smaller. The demand is still very good for the season, and prices are firm throughout, with some further advances. Actual buying of wool by mills is increasing at all markets, with the belief that foreign supplies are short.

Failures for the week have been 240 in the United States, against 302 last year and 40 in Canada, against 31 last year.

TROOPS GOING TO ALASKA.

Secretary Alger Will Establish a Post at Mouth of Yukon.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18.—The situation in Alaska has been discussed at the cabinet meeting. Secretary of War Alger had a report from Captain Ray, who has just arrived at St. Michaels, which furnished the basis for the discussion and the course which was decided upon. Captain Ray's report was in the nature of an urgent appeal for troops to preserve peace and order during the coming winter. There are a vast amount of stores and supplies at St. Michaels, and there is not a United States soldier in the whole territory of Alaska.

After considering the subject it was decided to send a company of infantry to St. Michaels as soon as possible. Secretary Alger will arrange the details immediately and he hopes to have the company sail within a week, probably from Seattle, Wash. He has not yet selected the officers who will be placed in command nor does he yet know from what post the company will be taken. This action is in effect the establishment of a military post at the mouth of the Yukon.

Secretary Alger later gave the necessary orders for the sending of troops. There will be only 25 infantrymen and they will be sent from Fort D. A. Russell, where Captain Ray had made a selection of hardy men to accompany him when he was about to go north before. These men will be under the lead of Lieutenant Colonel Randall of the Eighth infantry, now at Cheyenne, and there will be a surgeon and three members of the army hospital corps, because of the reports of prevailing sickness in Alaska.

PRESIDENT TO TAKE A TRIP.

Will Visit an Old Friend in Massachusetts, Leaving Next Week.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18.—The president has arranged to leave Washington early next week for a short visit to Massachusetts. He will be accompanied by Mrs. McKinley and Mr. Courtelyou, his stenographer.

His destination is North Adams, Mass., in Northwestern Massachusetts, in the Berkshire hills, where he will be the guest of W. D. Plunkett, an old friend, who came to Somerset last week to prevail upon the president to make this visit. It is the present expectation of the president to return to Washington sometime in the latter week of this month.

TARSNEY AND TOWNE.

These Brilliant Orators at Silver Campmeeting.

SONGS BY SILVER SONGSTERS.

Chapman to Be There Monday—Judge Travis of Kentucky and Mrs. Tillinghast of Cleveland Addressed the Largest Audience of the Series.

SPRINGFIELD, O., Sept. 18.—Now that the weather has become bearable, people are beginning to come in large numbers for the national free silver campmeeting. The speaker at the morning session was the brilliant ex-Congressman Timothy Tarsney of Detroit, who held a good-sized audience spell-bound. The program opened with a number of songs by the "Silver Songsters" of Indiana, much to the delight of the hearers.

A. A. Brown took the stand at the close of the songs and read a letter from H. L. Chapman, dated at Columbus, announcing that he, with Mortimer F. Taylor of Denver, who has just returned from Europe, where he has been engaged in studying the money question, will be at the campmeeting Monday to deliver addresses. Mr. Brown then introduced George W. Moore of Darke county as the chairman of the day. Mr. Tarsney said among other things:

"The gold of the world has never had so much strain before as today. It has so much of a load to carry that it has been compelled to cut prices of everything to the bone, in order to carry the load at all. Money is to our nation what blood is to our bodies. As long as it flows freely so long the national health is good, but congestion of money brings national paralysis, during which condition the much promised but little seen 'prosperity' can never come."

Judge Travis of Covington, Ky., spoke to the largest audience seen so far. Mrs. Tillinghast of Cleveland followed him in a brilliant address. Last night ex-Congressman Towne, one of the greatest orators in the world, entertained an audience running up into the thousands.

THREE SUICIDES AT AKRON.

Women Seek Death on Account of Love Affairs.

AKRON, O., Sept. 18.—Vinnie Nichols of 45 Huron street, Cleveland, who had George H. Alling, a prominent manufacturer of this city, arrested several weeks ago for alleged betrayal, went to his home here and was ordered away by Allings' mother, but refused to go. Mrs. Alling went for an officer, and when she returned the girl attempted to swallow a vial of laudanum.

The officer knocked it from her hand, and she then drew a large knife from her sleeve. She was disarmed and placed in jail.

Mrs. Kate Cummings, a young widow, took a large dose of opium on account of disappointment in a love affair, but her condition was discovered in time to save her life.

Miss Alice Reading, the milliner who on Monday night attempted suicide by taking morphine and drowning, acknowledged for the first time that she had attempted to take her life. She says that on her wedding day she discovered that her affianced, a man from Toledo, was already married.

RATCHFORD CONGRATULATED.

His Massillon Friends Pleased With Outcome of the Strike.

MASSILLON, O., Sept. 18.—President M. D. Ratchford of the miners' national organization has arrived in the city and has been warmly received by his friends. Congratulations were heaped upon him for his success in bringing about a settlement at Columbus so satisfactory to all concerned.

Ratchford says the strike will be vigorously continued in Illinois and West Virginia until the operators there agree to meet the miners officials, either in conference or convention, for the purpose of adjusting the rate.

New Ohio Postmasters.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18.—The following new Ohio postmasters have been appointed: Shepherd Hawley at Bucrus, Columbiana county, vice Augustus Kuhl, removed; J. F. Hatch at Cherry Valley, Ashtabula county, vice McClelland Hall, removed; B. E. Colvin at South Newberry, Geauga county, vice J. H. Hodges, removed; E. V. Hawkins at Vernon, Trumbull county, vice Laura Bacon, resigned.

Indiana Operators and Miners.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Sept. 18.—The Indiana operators and miners in joint conference in this city subscribed to a proposition to allow the miners to resume work at 56 cents a ton until next Wednesday, when another joint conference is to be held looking to a final settlement.

An Independent Colored Ticket.

PRINCESS ANNE, Md., Sept. 18.—A number of colored men in Somerset county have put up an independent ticket, composed entirely of colored men. They claim that their race has not been properly recognized by the Republicans.

At 1 o'clock in the morning a number of men belonging to the common people forced their way into the municipal palace, ascended the stairway, overcame the guards and made their way to the office of the inspector general of police and killed Arnulfo Arroyo, whom they found there. The killing was a wild and savage scene and was followed by a wild and noisy retreat. The assistant chief of police, who was sleeping in an adjoining room, was awakened by the noise. He arose and ran to the balcony, firing his pistol as a signal for help.

At the same time he called to a policeman, who was in sight, to make an attempt to detain the avengers, who were making their escape. The firing of pistols and the whistles of policemen brought other officers, who succeeded in capturing a score of persons. It was not long before the inspector general and Inspector Villavicencio arrived on horseback. When the police entered the room they found the body of the dead man lying in the middle of the floor. It was literally riddled and hacked with knife stabs. At his side were found a door bar and several knives and other steel instruments. An examination showed that the panes of a window were broken. The men who were captured would not say anything.

When Arroyo was surprised by the mob he was sitting in a chair in the northeast corner of what once was General Carraladas' private office. There, mixed with fragments of window panes, was a long pool of blood marking the spot where Arroyo had been stabbed. The body was removed to the Fourth ward police station.

The gendarmes who were guarding Arroyo were unarmed. If they had been armed they would have fired on the mob.

Over 200 people penetrated the building. When they surprised Arroyo he was in a straight jacket and could make no resistance. He seemed too terrified to speak.

FOND OF A SERVANT GIRL.

The Prosecution Shows a Motive For Luetgert's Alleged Crime.

CHICAGO, Sept. 18.—The prosecution rested its case today after three weeks given to the presentation of evidence against Luetgert and four weeks spent in the trial.

The prosecution closed its case with some strong evidence tending to prove the motive for the alleged crime. The state endeavored to show that infatuation for Mary Simmering, the servant girl in the Luetgert household, was the cause of the murder. It was claimed that the big sausagemaker desired to make the girl his wife and that he put Mrs. Luetgert out of the way in order to permit his marriage with the girl. To prove this Frank Bialk and Frank Odorsky, employees of Luetgert who have already testified in the case, were put upon the stand and gave evidence relating to the domestic affairs of Luetgert. They testified as to the fondness of Luetgert for Mary Simmering and the indignant opposition to the girl's presence in the house made by Mrs. Luetgert.

TRADE CONTINUES TO GROW.

Dun Names Several Features—Miners at Work Helped.

NEW YORK, Sept. 18.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade issued today says: The end of the bituminous coal strike and the return of many thousand men to work at advanced wages adds to the purchasing power of the people and the anthracite strike affects not a fifth as many workers. The starting of many mines and works, the enormous exports of wheat and corn, the favorable news as to those crops and cotton, the fall in sterling exchange and the report showing that gold imports began in August exceeding exports by $2,390,587, while merchandise exports exceeded imports by $10,953,753, have all contributed to forward the improvement in business. The replenishment of stocks cannot be half finished, though some who could see no sign of improvement a few weeks ago are now finding it so vast and rapid that they fear reaction. But consumers as well as dealers have also to supply themselves after years of enforced economy. When the tide rises after four years of depression it does not fall again after four weeks.

The wheat market has declined over 5 cents on account of crop reports, which promise larger prosperity, and corn and cotton are both a little lower for like reasons. Atlantic exports of wheat, flour included, are more than double last year's. From the Pacific coast wheat is also moving largely. Corn declined over 3 cents with belief that the yield will surpass estimates. The iron industry again shows increasing demand, and an average of prices nearly 1 per cent higher, due to purchasing by consumers. Buying of 100,000 tons Bessemer pig at Pittsburgh has advanced the price to $10. Grey forge is hard to find there at $9.15 and billets sell at $15.50. With output increased to 122,431 tons weekly, Connellsville coke advanced to $1.40 for furnace.

Textile mills are more fully employed than at any other time for years, though now buying has diminished in amount, and though while the number of orders received is still large, the amount is smaller. The demand is still very good for the season, and prices are firm throughout, with some further advances. Actual buying of wool by mills is increasing at all markets, with the belief that foreign supplies are short.

Failures for the week have been 240 in the United States, against 302 last year and 40 in Canada, against 31 last year.

TROOPS GOING TO ALASKA.

Secretary Alger Will Establish a Post at Mouth of Yukon.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18.—The situation in Alaska has been discussed at the cabinet meeting. Secretary of War Alger had a report from Captain Ray, who has just arrived at St. Michaels, which furnished the basis for the discussion and the course which was decided upon. Captain Ray's report was in the nature of an urgent appeal for troops to preserve peace and order during the coming winter. There are a vast amount of stores and supplies at St. Michaels, and there is not a United States soldier in the whole territory of Alaska.

After considering the subject it was decided to send a company of infantry to St. Michaels as soon as possible. Secretary Alger will arrange the details immediately and he hopes to have the company sail within a week, probably from Seattle, Wash. He has not yet selected the officers who will be placed in command nor does he yet know from what post the company will be taken. This action is in effect the establishment of a military post at the mouth of the Yukon.

Secretary Alger later gave the necessary orders for the sending of troops. There will be only 25 infantrymen and they will be sent from Fort D. A. Russell, where Captain Ray had made a selection of hardy men to accompany him when he was about to go north before. These men will be under the lead of Lieutenant Colonel Randall of the Eighth infantry, now at Cheyenne, and there will be a surgeon and three members of the army hospital corps, because of the reports of prevailing sickness in Alaska.

PRESIDENT TO TAKE A TRIP.

Will Visit an Old Friend in Massachusetts, Leaving Next Week.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18.—The president has arranged to leave Washington early next week for a short visit to Massachusetts. He will be accompanied by Mrs. McKinley and Mr. Courtelyou, his stenographer.

His destination is North Adams, Mass., in Northwestern Massachusetts, in the Berkshire hills, where he will be the guest of W. D. Plunkett, an old friend, who came to Somerset last week to prevail upon the president to make this visit. It is the present expectation of the president to return to Washington sometime in the latter week of this month.

TARSNEY AND TOWNE.

These Brilliant Orators at Silver Campmeeting.

SONGS BY SILVER SONGSTERS.

Chapman to Be There Monday—Judge Travis of Kentucky and Mrs. Tillinghast of Cleveland Addressed the Largest Audience of the Series.

SPRINGFIELD, O., Sept. 18.—Now that the weather has become bearable, people are beginning to come in large numbers for the national free silver campmeeting. The speaker at the morning session was the brilliant ex-Congressman Timothy Tarsney of Detroit, who held a good-sized audience spell-bound. The program opened with a number of songs by the "Silver Songsters" of Indiana, much to the delight of the hearers.

A. A. Brown took the stand at the close of the songs and read a letter from H. L. Chapman, dated at Columbus, announcing that he, with Mortimer F. Taylor of Denver, who has just returned from Europe, where he has been engaged in studying the money question, will be at the campmeeting Monday to deliver addresses. Mr. Brown then introduced George W. Moore of Darke county as the chairman of the day. Mr. Tarsney said among other things:

"The gold of the world has never had so much strain before as today. It has so much of a load to carry that it has been compelled to cut prices of everything to the bone, in order to carry the load at all. Money is to our nation what blood is to our bodies. As long as it flows freely so long the national health is good, but congestion of money brings national paralysis, during which condition the much promised but little seen 'prosperity' can never come."

Judge Travis of Covington, Ky., spoke to the largest audience seen so far. Mrs. Tillinghast of Cleveland followed him in a brilliant address. Last night ex-Congressman Towne, one of the greatest orators in the world, entertained an audience running up into the thousands.

THREE SUICIDES AT AKRON.

Women Seek Death on Account of Love Affairs.

AKRON, O., Sept. 18.—Vinnie Nichols of 45 Huron street, Cleveland, who had George H. Alling, a prominent manufacturer of this city, arrested several weeks ago for alleged betrayal, went to his home here and was ordered away by Alling's mother, but refused to go. Mrs. Alling went for an officer, and when she returned the girl attempted to swallow a vial of laudanum.

The officer knocked it from her hand, and she then drew a large knife from her sleeve. She was disarmed and placed in jail.

Mrs. Kate Cummings, a young widow, took a large dose of opium on account of disappointment in a love affair, but her condition was discovered in time to save her life.

Miss Alice Reading, the milliner who on Monday night attempted suicide by taking morphine and drowning, acknowledged for the first time that she had attempted to take her life. She says that on her wedding day she discovered that her affianced, a man from Toledo, was already married.

RATCHFORD CONGRATULATED.

His Massillon Friends Pleased With Outcome of the Strike.

MASSILLON, O., Sept. 18.—President M. D. Ratchford of the miners' national organization has arrived in the city and has been warmly received by his friends. Congratulations were heaped upon him for his success in bringing about a settlement at Columbus so satisfactory to all concerned.

Ratchford says the strike will be vigorously continued in Illinois and West Virginia until the operators there agree to meet the miners officials, either in conference or convention, for the purpose of adjusting the rate.

New Ohio Postmasters.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18.—The following new Ohio postmasters have been appointed: Shepherd Hawley at Bucyrus, Columbiana county, vice Augustus Kuhl, removed; J. F. Hatch at Cherry Valley, Ashtabula county, vice McClelland Hall, removed; B. E. Colvin at South Newberry, Geauga county, vice J. H. Hodges, removed; E. V. Hawkins at Vernon, Trumbull county, vice Laura Bacon, resigned.

Indiana Operators and Miners.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Sept. 18.—The Indiana operators and miners in joint conference in this city subscribed to a proposition to allow the miners to resume work at 56 cents a ton until next Wednesday, when another joint conference is to be held looking to a final settlement.

An Independent Colored Ticket.

PRINCESS ANNE, Md., Sept. 18.—A number of colored men in Somerset county have put up an independent ticket, composed entirely of colored men. They claim that their race has not been properly recognized by the Republicans.

PERFIDY

As Practiced by Senatorial Candidate John R. McLean.

SLAUGHTER OF FAITHFUL

Relentless Methods of the Cincinnati Editor Against His Betters.

AS TO THURMAN AND PENDLETON.

Allen O. Myers Tells Some Startling Truths About His Candidate For the United States Senate.

Mr. Allen O. Myers is a very interesting and in some respects well informed man. He wrote a book, "Bosses and Boodle," and published it in Cincinnati in 1895. It contains much matter of importance.

O'Myers had a lapse from devotion to Democracy when his book was prepared and given to the public, and he lashed both parties in Ohio indiscriminately. He certainly as a correspondent of the Cincinnati Enquirer knew a great deal about the proprietor of that paper and the true inwardness of the Democratic party. He says many strange things of The Enquirer boss and seems fond of him—loved him while he lammed him—and is now the most talented and active of McLean's supporters for the senate.

In his book O'Myers refers to the "masterful manipulation of Washington McLean" in running a Greenback candidate for the presidency in 1868, and opens wide the money question as it has raged in Ohio as follows:

Pendleton, Vallandigham and others, under the influence of Washington McLean, whose earnest advocacy would not be denied, abandoned the teachings of Democracy in favor of "hard money," gold and silver as provided by the constitution, and ventured upon dangerous and forbidden paths. Since 1868 the Democratic party boxed the compass and occupied every side, and advocated every possible phase of the money question, except outright repudiation, and now (1895) it is about to complete its performance by being misled under the guise of sound money, to repudiate one of the metals expressly provided by the constitution and return to a wild-cat banking system as advocated by the national platform in 1892 and approved by Secretary Carlisle in his recent Memphis speech. O'Myers advocates sound money very ably, and remarks that under the magnetism of Washington McLean nearly all the Democratic leaders in Ohio except Senator Thurman were "bitten by the Greenback snake."

In nothing is O'Myers so interested in talking of Democratic quarrels, as in this instance:

The refusal of Allen G. Thurman to endorse the Greenback doctrine as urged by Washington McLean and advocated by the Cincinnati Enquirer had led to a breach, and for years Thurman was bitterly opposed and constantly pursued by the McLeans, father and son, Washington and John, and their newspaper.

This is an item that is quite pertinent or impertinent at the present time. Later on, page 183, O'Myers says:

In 1880 Mr. Thurman was approaching the close of 12 years' active service in Congress. He was in his sixty-seventh year. The presidency was an honor which his life and public service had qualified him to fill, and gave him no small claim upon the consideration of his party, if great merit and faithful services are qualifications. His unanimous and apparently hearty endorsement by his party in Ohio was a gratifying evidence of his high standing at home, but the attacks of the Cincinnati Enquirer and the persistent opposition of Washington and John R. McLean weakened Mr. Thurman as a candidate and prepared the way for the bosses and boodle to debauch the Ohio delegation and bring shame upon the state and disgrace upon the Ohio Democracy.

It is an unfortunate habit of the Ohio Democracy to denounce the corrupt practices of the Republicans one year and proceed to indulge in the same evils the next.

When Thurman was a candidate for the presidency O'Myers says "the Cincinnati Enquirer lost no opportunity to abuse Thurman and belittle his candidacy. The object was revenge and not revenue."

The McLean quarrel with George H. Pendleton is given much space. It was at best personal and became a bitter feud. John R. took up his father's fight and John "wanted to be rich quick," believing anything is possible with money—"believes every man has his price," "cares nothing for the rights of others," and (page 214)—

Mr. McLean never had any political convictions. The passing views he may have had from day to day he discarded when he changed his shirt. He never had any convictions upon ANY question.

Several local affairs in which boodle was used are mentioned by O'Myers, and it is stated one county convention in Cincinnati cost McLean $20,000, and in the contest in which Hoadley was elected governor "Mr. McLean claimed to have expended $100,000 in helping carry Hamilton county and elect a legislature." And he already was looking to the United States senate. Myers charges that one Democratic United States senator was elected at a cost of $300,000, and on another occasion John R. McLean was "mildly delirious over the result" and "the ballots were all carefully preserved and turned over to John R. McLean, who carefully put the same away in his safe for further reference."

In 1885 O'Myers says John R. McLean was a candidate for the senatorship against John Sherman. The legislature was very close at first, forgery having been committed in behalf of the Democratic candidates for the legislature. O'Myers says:

The most outrageous frauds had been committed in Cincinnati and were charged to Mr. John R. McLean, and when the legislature met the McLean delegation from Hamilton county was promptly unseated in the house, and later the same was done in the senate.

O'Myers does not pursue the interesting theme.

O'Myers says:

In Franklin county two candidates on the Democratic ticket, Messrs. Myers and Young, were beaten by the open opposition of Mr. Thurman's friends. After the election and before the count was completed, the official returns were taken out of the safe on Sunday and a number of votes (over 200) were added to those recorded as having been cast for the Democratic candidates. The forgery was replaced in the safe on Sunday night, and when the canvassing board met on Monday to complete its labors the crime was promptly discovered by Mr. John Joyce who as county clerk, was president of the canvassers, and seemed to be expecting it.

Two hundred votes were stuffed into the ballot-box of precinct A, Fourth ward, in Cincinnati on election night, and these votes carried a part of the Hamilton county delegation for McLean. As to the Columbus matter O'Myers says:

The fraud was so evident, bungling and senseless that it was immediately thrown out. This forgery and discovery created great excitement all over Ohio, and showed that the people were in no humor to tamely submit to another outrage upon the purity of elections that would send another millionaire boss and boodler to the United States senate. An effort was made to send the boss and his tools to the penitentiary. The big fish jumped over the seine and escaped. They caught one or two minnows.

The forgery in Columbus was wrongfully laid at the door of Mr. John R. McLean. . . . There is no doubt but that if a Democratic member could have secured a certificate of election by fraud that Mr. McLean would have been willing to pay for it, but it is an insult to his keen business sense and his character as a shrewd man in money matters to suppose that he paid for something he did not get.

This is the way in which it is denied that McLean paid $10,000 for the crime which was charged.

Mr. O'Myers gives details of the slaughter of Pendleton and Thurman by the McLean newspaper and money, saying of Pendleton's letter advocating Thurman for the presidency:

Poor Pendleton. Little did he know that three years later he was to pay for his temerity in supporting Thurman, by falling a victim to the same man, the same methods, and the boodle from the same source as had ended Allen G. Thurman's political life and humiliated Ohio Democracy.

It was over Pendleton's defeat that O'Myers says McLean was "mildly delirious with joy."

As to the final slaughter of Thurman O'Myers says:

The compact made the year before was still in force and binding on both. At the state convention held in June, 1884, Allen G. Thurman, Durbin Ward, George Hoadley and John R. McLean were chosen delegates-at-large to the Democratic national convention, which met July 8 at Chicago. Mr. J. R. McLean was chosen chairman of the delegation and those he could control by purchase or persuasion opposed Allen G. Thurman as a candidate for president and supported Governor Hoadley. It was a pitiable spectacle, fully as disgraceful as the performance at Cincinnati four years before.

This testimony of the recklessness of McLean in politics, his absurd ambition, his engagement in three boodle games for the senate, besides the one upon which he has now entered, and his malignant personal jealousies and animosities toward Pendleton and Thurman is from one of the admirers and supporters of the Boodle Boss Democratic senatorial candidate for United States senate.

The Outdoor Woman.

It was doubtless a happy reaction which took place last year from the epidemic of bloomers to a more graceful and becoming cycling dress, which included a skirt among its component articles. Most people were well pleased with the change, and the costume now worn by the better class of women riders stands as quite a triumph in evolution. The skirt is six or seven inches shorter than that of a street gown, and this length has been found to meet all requirements as to appearance, comfort and safety. But I should like to say that there is a little tendency now among a few people to go over to the other extreme and to wear on the wheel, as is commonly done in England, a skirt of ordinary walking length. Nothing could be more foolish than such a practice, the dangers of which have been set forth time and again in accidents of various kinds. If English women choose to take such risks, that is no reason why we should feel obliged to imitate their recklessness. Keep the skirt at the sensible, comfortable and pretty length, which is at present the most common one or—mark a prophecy—we shall have a not unjustifiable relapse to the bloomer fever.—Harper's Bazar.

Singers, actors and public speakers since the introduction of the electric light have less trouble with their voices and are less likely to catch cold, their throats are not so parched and they feel better. This is due to the air being less vitiated and the temperature more even.

HUNTING EVIL DOERS

A Private Detective Agency Has Been Formed.

SEVEN MEMBERS ENROLLED

It is the Intention to Increase the Number to a Dozen—Some Work Has Already Been Done, and the Amateurs Are Assured of More.

Not long ago seven men, some young, some of middle age, but all determined to make an honest penny by keeping their eyes wide open, assembled in an upper room of a building in the Diamond, and organized a private detective agency.

The organization is a branch of an Indianapolis institution, and to become identified with it the applicant must show a clean record and $2, being rewarded with a certificate of membership and a suitably engraved star. The local council is in charge of a chief who controls the business and apportions work to the detectives.

A number of those identified with the council have been connected with Pittsburg agencies, and have had experience here and elsewhere. At present some of them are at work on local cases of more or less importance, and it is said that some of the parties who have this week appeared before the grand jury can lay their presence in Lisbon to the members of the council. Officials of the Cleveland and Pittsburg have been corresponding with the chief for some time, and a number of local business men have placed shoplifting cases in the agency's hands. It is believed there is enough work in the city to make the agency a profitable venture.

TRENTON IS BOOMING.

More Men Employed Than In a Number of Years.

China, Glass and Lamps has this to say of Trenton:

"A moderate improvement is noticeable in all lines with a disposition among dealers to buy for immediate wants rather than for stock. White wares are in more general demand than they have been for years, and enamel decorations are crowding out the cheaper lines of printed wares.

"It is estimated that there are now between two and three times as many potters regularly employed in Trenton as there were six weeks ago, and that before the end of the month there will be very few out of employment who care to work."

NEXT WEEK AT THE GRAND.

Walker Whiteside and Al Field's Darkest America.

Walker Whiteside, supported by an excellent company, comes to the Grand on Monday night, and will present the "Man in Black." Mr. Whiteside is so well and favorably known to East Liverpool theater goers that the success of the engagement is assured.

"Darkest America," better than ever, will be at the Grand next Tuesday evening. Field's minstrels have always been favorites here, and this time their friends will be enthusiastic. The program is complete, and consists of the best music and dancing that money can secure.

TWO BUGGIES COLLIDED.

An Accident on the Lisbon Road Attended by Damage.

Joseph Winters and William Robison were driving from Lisbon last night, and when they reached the sharp bend at the head of the Lisbon road collided with a buggy coming up the hill.

The wheels locked in such a manner as to overturn the buggies, one dumping its occupants on the upper side of the road, and the other falling on the lower side, but strange to say no one was hurt. The Liverpool buggy was broken, and the occupants set about to repair it before they resumed their journey.

A Hard Fall.

Yesterday afternoon the two-year-old child of Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, East End, while playing on one of the numerous bridges which cross the run in Elm street, lost its balance and fell to the ground, a distance of three or four feet, cutting a large gash in its forehead.

TO THE RESCUE.

When a Newfoundland dog plunges into the water and saves a drowning child, every one has a word of praise for the noble animal. There is a graver danger than that of drowning that menaces childhood. It is a danger from which every prospective mother may save her babe if she will only take the right care of the health of the delicate organs that bear the burdens of maternity, during the period of motherhood.

The threatening danger is that baby will be weak, puny and sickly, and come into the world with the seeds of disease and death already implanted in its little body. Health cannot be born of ill-health. The child born of a mother who is suffering from weakness and disease of the feminine organs is condemned upon the very threshold of life to suffering, disease and death. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription fits a woman for motherhood and insures a healthy baby. Thousands of women who were either childless or whose children had all died in infancy, bless the "Favorite Prescription" for the fact that they are now the happy mothers of healthy children. The medicine dealer who says he has something "just as good" knows that he falsifies.

Mrs. Jno. H. Jones, of Peely, Luzerne Co., Pa., writes: "I was induced to buy two bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription to see if the medicine would make the coming of my baby more easy. I had seven children before and all died during birth or shortly after. I am happy to say that my eighth child (born Sunday, October 27th, 1895) is living and I suffered none at all, compared with what I had with the others."

The names, addresses and photographs of hundreds of women cured by Dr. Pierce's medicines are printed by permission in the "People's Common Sense Medical Adviser." It's free. For a paper-covered copy send 21 one-cent stamps to cover mailing only. French cloth binding 31 stamps. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. Every woman needs a great medical book. Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser fills this want. It contains over 1000 pages and 300 illustrations. Several chapters are devoted to the physiology of the organs distinctly feminine.

A STRAY BIT OF NEWS

Picked Up on Church Alley by Our Representative.

When our readers are told that Mr. C. McLean, of 187 Church Alley, has lived amongst us for eleven years, that he conducted three years ago a brick manufacturing, and retired from it to enter the East Liverpool Pottery Co.'s employ, ample proof can be produced that all this is so, for Mr. McLean is in the city to verify or contradict it. It is the same with the assertions contained in his statement that follows. You have only to interview the gentleman, when a personal corroboration will be given to what here for the first time is made public. No doubt or suspicion can be thrown on it. Such evidence must be convincing, conclusive, indisputable. Read it, Mr. McLean says: "I used to be troubled a great deal with muscular rheumatism, but the last three years the whole trouble seems to have settled in my back and kidneys, and caused much pain and suffering, the last year being the worst. I had a steady aching pain in my kidneys; extreme weakness in the muscles of the back; could not rest at night except lying flat on my back; and there was a urinary weakness accompanying it. Although I had many bad attacks and used many different medicines, I never obtained any relief. The worst attack I ever had, and which completely used me up, occurred a short time ago. Not having much faith left in medicine, I was rather skeptical when I was recommended to try Doan's Kidney Pills, but I got so bad that I had to get something, so I went for a box to the W. & W. Pharmacy. I am glad to say they are the best thing I ever tried. They went direct to the kidneys, and acted on the very fountain head of all the trouble, relieving me in a very short time. I highly recommend them."

Doan's Kidney Pills are for sale by all dealers. Price 50c. per box, or sent by mail on receipt of price. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

For the Mother of Lee.

Under the auspices of the Mary Ann Lee Memorial association, a bazaar is to be held in Alexandria, Va., this autumn, for the purpose of securing funds for the erection of a monument to the memory of Mary Ann Lee, the mother of the southern chieftain. The monument will adorn the intersection of two of the principal streets in Alexandria and will probably be in the vicinity of historic old Christ church, where both General Lee and his mother worshiped.

He says many strange things of The Enquirer boss and seems fond of him—loved him while he lammed him—and is now the most talented and active of McLean's supporters for the senate.

In his book O'Myers refers to the "masterful manipulation of Washington McLean" in running a Greenback candidate for the presidency in 1868, and opens wide the money question as it has raged in Ohio as follows:

Pendleton, Vallandigham and others, under the influence of Washington McLean, whose earnest advocacy would not be denied, abandoned the teachings of Democracy in favor of "hard money," gold and silver as provided by the constitution, and ventured upon dangerous and forbidden paths. Since 1868 the Democratic party boxed the compass and occupied every side, and advocated every possible phase of the money question, except outright repudiation, and now (1895) it is about to complete its performance by being misled under the guise of sound money, to repudiate one of the metals expressly provided by the constitution and return to a wild-cat banking system as advocated by the national platform in 1892 and approved by Secretary Carlisle in his recent Memphis speech.

O'Myers advocates sound money very ably, and remarks that under the magnetism of Washington McLean nearly all the Democratic leaders in Ohio except Senator Thurman were "bitten by the Greenback snake."

In nothing is O'Myers so interested in talking of Democratic quarrels, as in this instance:

The refusal of Allen G. Thurman to endorse the Greenback doctrine as urged by Washington McLean and advocated by the Cincinnati Enquirer had led to a breach, and for years Thurman was bitterly opposed and constantly pursued by the McLeans, father and son, Washington and John, and their newspaper.

This is an item that is quite pertinent or impertinent at the present time. Later on, page 183, O'Myers says:

In 1880 Mr. Thurman was approaching the close of 12 years' active service in Congress. He was in his sixty-seventh year. The presidency was an honor which his life and public service had qualified him to fill, and gave him no small claim upon the consideration of his party, if great merit and faithful services are qualifications. His unanimous and apparently hearty endorsement by his party in Ohio was a gratifying evidence of his high standing at home, but the attacks of the Cincinnati Enquirer and the persistent opposition of Washington and John R. McLean weakened Mr. Thurman as a candidate and prepared the way for the bosses and boodle to debauch the Ohio delegation and bring shame upon the state and disgrace upon the Ohio Democracy.

It is an unfortunate habit of the Ohio Democracy to denounce the corrupt practices of the Republicans one year and proceed to indulge in the same evils the next.

When Thurman was a candidate for the presidency O'Myers says "the Cincinnati Enquirer lost no opportunity to abuse Thurman and belittle his candidacy. The object was revenge and not revenue."

The McLean quarrel with George H. Pendleton is given much space. It was at best personal and became a bitter feud. John R. took up his father's fight and John "wanted to be rich quick," believing anything is possible with money—"believes every man has his price," "cares nothing for the rights of others," and (page 214)—

Mr. McLean never had any political convictions. The passing views he may have had from day to day he discarded when he changed his shirt. He never had any convictions upon any question.

Several local affairs in which boodle was used are mentioned by O'Myers, and it is stated one county convention in Cincinnati cost McLean $20,000, and in the contest in which Hoadly was elected governor "Mr. McLean claimed to have expended $100,000 in helping carry Hamilton county and elect a legislature." And he already was looking to the United States senate. Myers charges that one Democratic United States senator was elected at a cost of $300,000, and on another occasion John R. McLean was "mildly delirious over the result" and "the ballots were all carefully preserved and turned over to John R. McLean, who carefully put the same away in his safe for further reference."

In 1885 O'Myers says John R. McLean was a candidate for the senatorship against John Sherman. The legislature was very close at first, forgery having been committed in behalf of the Democratic candidates for the legislature. O'Myers says:

The most outrageous frauds had been committed in Cincinnati and were charged to Mr. John R. McLean, and when the legislature met the McLean delegation from Hamilton county was promptly unseated in the house, and later the same was done in the senate.

O'Myers does not pursue the interesting theme.

O'Myers says:

In Franklin county two candidates on the Democratic ticket, Messrs. Myers and Young, were beaten by the open opposition of Mr. Thurman's friends. After the election and before the count was completed, the official returns were taken out of the safe on Sunday and a number of votes (over 200) were added to those recorded as having been cast for the Democratic candidates. The forgery was replaced in the safe on Sunday night, and when the canvassing board met on Monday to complete its labors the crime was promptly discovered by Mr. John Joyce who as county clerk, was president of the canvassers, and seemed to be expecting it.

Two hundred votes were stuffed into the ballot-box of precinct A, Fourth ward, in Cincinnati on election night, and these votes carried a part of the Hamilton county delegation for McLean. As to the Columbus matter O'Myers says:

The fraud was so evident, bungling and senseless that it was immediately thrown out. This forgery and discovery created great excitement all over Ohio, and showed that the people were in no humor to tamely submit to another outrage upon the purity of elections that would send another millionaire boss and boodler to the United States senate. An effort was made to send the boss and his tools to the penitentiary. The big fish jumped over the seine and escaped. They caught one or two minnows.

The forgery in Columbus was wrongfully laid at the door of Mr. John R. McLean.

There is no doubt but that if a Democratic member could have secured a certificate of election by fraud that Mr. McLean would have been willing to pay five it, but it is an insult to his keen business sense and his character as a shrewd man in money matters to suppose that he paid for something he did not get.

This is the way in which it is denied that McLean paid $10,000 for the crime which was charged.

Mr. O'Myers gives details of the slaughter of Pendleton and Thurman by the McLean newspaper and money, saying of Pendleton's letter advocating Thurman for the presidency:

Poor Pendleton. Little did he know that three years later he was to pay for his temerity in supporting Thurman, by falling a victim to the same man, the same methods, and the boodle from the same source as had ended Allen G. Thurman's political life and humiliated Ohio Democracy.

It was over Pendleton's defeat that O'Myers says McLean was "mildly delirious with joy."

As to the final slaughter of Thurman O'Myers says:

The compact made the year before was still in force and binding on both. At the state convention held in June, 1884, Allen G. Thurman, Durbin Ward, George Hoadly and John R. McLean were chosen delegates-at-large to the Democratic national convention, which met July 8 at Chicago. Mr. J. R. McLean was chosen chairman of the delegation and those he could control by purchase or persuasion opposed Allen G. Thurman as a candidate for president and supported Governor Hoadly. It was a pitiable spectacle, fully as disgraceful as the performance at Cincinnati four years before.

This testimony of the recklessness of McLean in politics, his absurd ambition, his engagement in three boodle games for the senate, besides the one upon which he has now entered, and his malignant personal jealousies and animosities toward Pendleton and Thurman is from one of the admirers and supporters of the Boodle Boss Democratic senatorial candidate for United States senate.

The Outdoor Woman.

It was doubtless a happy reaction which took place last year from the epidemic of bloomers to a more graceful and becoming cycling dress, which included a skirt among its component articles. Most people were well pleased with the change, and the costume now worn by the better class of women riders stands as quite a triumph in evolution. The skirt is six or seven inches shorter than that of a street gown, and this length has been found to meet all requirements as to appearance, comfort and safety. But I should like to say that there is a little tendency now among a few people to go over to the other extreme and to wear on the wheel, as is commonly done in England, a skirt of ordinary walking length. Nothing could be more foolish than such a practice, the dangers of which have been set forth time and again in accidents of various kinds. If English women choose to take such risks, that is no reason why we should feel obliged to imitate their recklessness. Keep the skirt at the sensible, comfortable and pretty length, which is at present the most common one or—mark a prophecy—we shall have a not unjustifiable relapse to the bloomer fever.—Harper's Bazar.

Singers, actors and public speakers since the introduction of the electric light have less trouble with their voices and are less likely to catch cold, their throats are not so parched and they feel better. This is due to the air being less vitiated and the temperature more even.

HUNTING EVIL DOERS

A Private Detective Agency Has Been Formed.

SEVEN MEMBERS ENROLLED

It is the Intention to Increase the Number to a Dozen—Some Work Has Already Been Done, and the Amateurs Are Assured of More.

Not long ago seven men, some young, some of middle age, but all determined to make an honest penny by keeping their eyes wide open, assembled in an upper room of a building in the Diamond, and organized a private detective agency.

The organization is a branch of an Indianapolis institution, and to become identified with it the applicant must show a clean record and $2, being rewarded with a certificate of membership and a suitably engraved star. The local council is in charge of a chief who controls the business and apports work to the detectives.

A number of those identified with the council have been connected with Pittsburgh agencies, and have had experience here and elsewhere. At present some of them are at work on local cases of more or less importance, and it is said that some of the parties who have this week appeared before the grand jury can lay their presence in Lisbon to the members of the council. Officials of the Cleveland and Pittsburgh have been corresponding with the chief for some time, and a number of local business men have placed shoplifting cases in the agency's hands. It is believed there is enough work in the city to make the agency a profitable venture.

TRENTON IS BOOMING.

More Men Employed Than In a Number of Years.

China, Glass and Lamps has this to say of Trenton:

"A moderate improvement is noticeable in all lines with a disposition among dealers to buy for immediate wants rather than for stock. White wares are in more general demand than they have been for years, and enamel decorations are crowding out the cheaper lines of printed wares.

"It is estimated that there are now between two and three times as many potters regularly employed in Trenton as there were six weeks ago, and that before the end of the month there will be very few out of employment who care to work."

NEXT WEEK AT THE GRAND.

Walker Whiteside and Al Field's Darkest America.

Walker Whiteside, supported by an excellent company, comes to the Grand on Monday night, and will present the "Man in Black." Mr. Whiteside is so well and favorably known to East Liverpool theater goers that the success of the engagement is assured.

"Darkest America," better than ever, will be at the Grand next Tuesday evening. Field's minstrels have always been favorites here, and this time their friends will be enthusiastic. The program is complete, and consists of the best music and dancing that money can secure.

TWO BUGGIES COLLIDED.

An Accident on the Lisbon Road Attended by Damage.

Joseph Winters and William Robison were driving from Lisbon last night, and when they reached the sharp bend at the head of the Lisbon road collided with a buggy coming up the hill.

The wheels locked in such a manner as to overturn the buggies, one dumping its occupants on the upper side of the road, and the other falling on the lower side, but strange to say no one was hurt. The Liverpool buggy was broken, and the occupants set about to repair it before they resumed their journey.

A Hard Fall.

Yesterday afternoon the two-year-old child of Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, East End, while playing on one of the numerous bridges which cross the run in Elm street, lost its balance and fell to the ground, a distance of three or four feet, cutting a large gash in its forehead.

TO THE RESCUE.

When a Newfoundland dog plunges into the water and saves a drowning child, every one has a word of praise for the noble animal. There is a graver danger than that of drowning that menaces childhood. It is a danger from which every prospective mother may save her babe if she will only take the right care of the health of the delicate organs that bear the burdens of maternity, during the period auguring motherhood. The threatening danger is that baby will be weak, puny and sickly, and come into the world with the seeds of disease and death already implanted in its little body. Health cannot be born of ill-health. The child born of a mother who is suffering from weakness and disease of the feminine organs is condemned upon the very threshold of life to suffering, disease and death. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription fits a woman for motherhood and insures a healthy baby. Thousands of women who were either childless or whose children had all died in babyhood, bless the "Favorite Prescription" for the fact that they are now the happy mothers of healthy children. The medicine dealer who says he has something "just as good" knows that he falsifies.

Mrs. Jno. H. Jones, of Peely, Luzerne Co., Pa., writes: "I was induced to buy two bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription to see if the medicine would make the coming of my baby more easy. I had seven children before and all died during birth or shortly after. I am happy to say that my eighth child (born Sunday, October 27th, 1895) is living and I suffered none at all, compared with what I had with the others."

The names, addresses and photographs of hundreds of women cured by Dr. Pierce's medicines are printed by permission in the "People's Common Sense Medical Adviser." It's free. For a paper-covered copy send 21 one-cent stamps to cover mailing only. French cloth binding 31 stamps. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Every woman needs a great medical book. Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser fills this want. It contains over 1000 pages and 300 illustrations. Several chapters are devoted to the physiology of the organs distinctly feminine.

A STRAY BIT OF NEWS

Picked Up on Church Alley by Our Representative.

When our readers are told that Mr. C. McLean, of 187 Church Alley, has lived amongst us for eleven years, that he conducted three years ago a brick manufactory, and retired from it to enter the East Liverpool Pottery Co.'s employ, ample proof can be produced that all this is so, for Mr. McLean is in the city to verify or contradict it. It is the same with the assertions contained in his statement that follows. You have only to interview the gentleman, when a personal corroboration will be given to what here for the first time is made public. No doubt or suspicion can be thrown on it. Such evidence must be convincing, conclusive, indisputable. Read it. Mr. McLean says: "I used to be troubled a great deal with muscular rheumatism, but the last three years the whole trouble seems to have settled in my back and kidneys, and caused much pain and suffering, the last year being the worst. I had a steady aching pain in my kidneys; extreme weakness in the muscles of the back; could not rest at night except lying flat on my back; and there was a constant weakness accompanying it. Although I had many bad attacks and used many different medicines, I never obtained any relief. The worst attack I ever had, and which completely used me up, occurred a short time ago. Not having much faith left in medicine, I was rather skeptical when I was recommended to try Doan's Kidney Pills, but I got so bad that I had to get something, so I went for a box to the W. & W. Pharmacy. I am glad to say they are the best thing I ever tried. They went direct to the kidneys, and acted on the very fountain head of all the trouble, relieving me in a very short time. I highly recommend them."

Doan's Kidney Pills are for sale by all dealers. Price 50c. per box, or sent by mail on receipt of price. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

For the Mother of Lee.

Under the auspices of the Mary Ann Lee Memorial association, a bazaar is to be held in Alexandria, Va., this autumn, for the purpose of securing funds for the erection of a monument to the memory of Mary Ann Lee, the mother of the southern chieftain. The monument will adorn the intersection of two of the principal streets in Alexandria and will probably be in the vicinity of historic old Christ church, where both General Lee and his mother worshipped.

SCHOOLS ARE CROWDED

Supt. McDonald Teaches a Little.

DECIDED NOT TO PROSECUTE

And a Family Quarrel Came to a Sudden End—The Athletes Don't Like a Liver-pool Offer—All the Good News of Wells-ville.

The public schools, and especially the high school, have increased in numbers to such an extent, that it almost necessitates the hiring of another teacher. One hundred high school students have been enrolled up to date and the number is greater than ever before. This necessitates Professor McDonald teaching Greek, chemistry and algebra for the time being, until another teacher is called. In the lower grades the numbers have increased almost in the same proportion, and it has taken considerable time and good management to have the students properly cared for. The schools are all organized, and next week they will be at work in earnest.

No Second Choice.

It is not at all probable the football team of the Wellsville Athletic club will play against the Monarchs provided the New Castle eleven fails to appear on the grounds. The boys say they would like to make a match with Liverpool, but they have no desire to take second choice. They were offered their expenses but could not bow to the temptation in the circumstances.

Withdrew the Charge.

Mrs. Daniel, of First street, withdrew the charge preferred against her husband in the court of Mayor Jones, and paid the costs. He had wandered from home without her consent, and she had hurriedly followed in pursuit with a club. When near Third and Broadway he remonstrated, striking her on the head and cutting a severe gash. She ran to city hall and made complaint. The mayor investigated, and induced her to withdraw the charge.

A Salty Dose.

Charles Hayden was arrested in Liverpool yesterday afternoon, and was brought before Justice McKenzie charged with train jumping. Hayden was with two other train jumpers who were arrested here, and when the officers attempted to arrest him he ran away. His fine amounted to $9.60, and late last evening he was out with the officers attempting to secure the required amount.

The case of P. M. Smith against J. W. Kelly in the settlement of a land contract, which was set for next Saturday in Justice McKenzie's court, was continued, and will likely be settled out of court.

Can't Go Much Lower.

CANDIDATE CHAPMAN will have to explain why he has a "pluckme" store at his mines before the workmen of Ohio will give him their vote.

THE regularity with which the announcement is made in Washington that a number of postmasters have been named for Ohio positions goes far toward showing the manner in which some congressmen are spending their leisure time.

THE selection of Professor Harper as instructor of music in the public schools is certainly a reward of merit. The professor came here a stranger, and by earnest, honest effort has not only done much to improve the musical taste of East Liverpool, but has proved to the satisfaction of all that he can fill the position and fill it well.

ANY effort to show that McLean is not the fountain head of interest in the Democratic portion of the campaign will fail of realization. The Washington magnate is not in politics for his health.
He is interesting himself in the battle because he wants to sit in the seat now occupied by Hon. M. A. Hanna.

CHICAGO has determined that it will have no more anarchistic chatter, and the police have been instructed to watch all meetings and arrest those orators who talk blood and thunder. If they do not forget Mr. Altgeld in making up their list they will have accomplished something worthy of attention. A man can be an anarchist and yet use good English.

WHEN Pennsylvania's governor heard of the Hazleton affair he at once took measures to prevent disorder, and when Indiana's governor heard of the lynching at Versailles he ordered that no effort be spared to bring the mob to justice. In the light of some past events, one cannot but think that the executives of northern states are at last learning just why they were elected to office.

A HIGHER STANDARD.

The tendency of the markets is toward a higher standard, and it seems that the era of cheap has gone with the Wilson law and its attendant hardships. A table has been prepared by Assistant Secretary Bingham, of the agricultural department, which shows that not only have corn and wheat increased in value, but butter, cheese, hides, rye, hops, potatoes and lambs command better prices than in a number of years.
All these things mean prosperity for the farmer.

NOT A PLEASING PICTURE.

The Liverpool people who have any thought of leaving profitable employment at home to try their fortunes on the Klondyke, should think twice before they begin the journey. There are today scores of starving men without employment at Dawson City, while the new graveyard contains the corpses of 20 typhoid victims, and many are ill in the other camps of that vicinity. Glistening though it does with golden nuggets, the Klondyke is attended with disease and hardship and crime sufficient to make it fall far short of presenting, even to the gold thirsty adventurers, a pleasing picture.

THE OLD RIVER ROAD

Causes Council to Talk a Great Deal.

IT MAY SOON BE FENCED IN

Mrs. Harker Sends an Interesting Communication—Several Hours Spent In Discussing Improvements—Some Good Results.

Messrs. Ashbaugh and Horwell were the only members of council who were not present last evening when the session was called to order. The Democratic central committee were all present, but adjourned to police court when council took possession of the room.

The ordinance granting permission to
T. C. Forster to construct a street railway was read, and the clerk announced that it was on its third reading. Doctor Marshall at once raised a point that it was only on its first reading. Although it had been read three times it had practically been done at the same meeting.
The ordinance was then passed under suspension of the rules.

The ordinance licensing bill posters came next, and Mr. Stewart said its purpose was to stop the indiscriminate passing of bills in the city by foreign merchants. Dr. Marshall said that no person should be given the privilege to throw bills around the streets as he pleased, and wanted a clause inserted in the ordinance that all advertising matter should be placed in the houses and not in the streets or yards.
The ordinance was then referred to President Peach, Mr. Stewart, and Solicitor Grosshans, with instructions to have the necessary clause inserted and report at the next meeting.

The ordinance to improve the west side of Jefferson street from the railroad to Third street was passed, after Commissioner Finley had explained that it had cost the city no less than $150 last year in repairing the street after heavy rains.

Clerk Hanley stated that he had a petition and waiver signed by all the property owners on College street, except the railroad company, in which they agreed to pay for improving the street, providing it did not exceed the rate per square yard of Cook street. They also agreed to waive all publication of notices
in the improvement.

Mr. Challis moved the request be granted, and Mr. Olmhausen seconded.
Mr. Peach wanted to know if the street railway proposed to pay their share in installments. The request was granted, and the subject of entering into a contract was discussed.

Mr. Peach was not in favor of it until they were sure the bridge company
would put up their share of the money,
and stated that the contractor would not take them unless he was backed by the city. Mr. Marshall wanted to know if the contractor would be willing to take the job by private contracts and leave the city out of it. This called forth the remark from Mr. Ryan that E.
A. Freshwater still had $700 coming to him from jobs in the city which he took
by private contracts, and he had no way of collecting it, while if the city had been back of him the amount could have been placed on the tax duplicate.

Mr. Stewart said that if the city paved the street and the bridge company did not pay up, they could issue bonds, as the property was worth it. Mr. Olmhausen moved the matter be submitted to the solicitor, while Mr. Peach thought a committee should be appointed to find out what the bridge company proposed to do. The motion got no second.

small bottle of TONSILINE lasts longer than most any case of SORE THROAT.

The same truth holds good with
the worst case of SORE MOUTH.
Thousands have tried and endorse Tonsiline as a grand family remedy
for Sore Throat, Sore Mouth, Hoarseness and Quinsy.

Every home needs Tonsiline always at hand, it saves dollars and lives.

Tonsiline costs 25 and 50 Cents,
at all druggists.

THE TONSILINE CO., CANTON, O.

and Mr. Stewart remarked that the bridge company had done all they could when they signed the waiver. Clerk
Hanley said the bridge company was in the same shape as the rest of the property.

"The rest of them mean what they say," said Mr. Peach.

"I don't believe the president has very much confidence in the bridge company," remarked Mr. Cain.

"Not the best in the world," retorted
Mr. Peach.

"We have been working five nights
on matters that should be settled in one night," said Mr. Stewart. "The property owners have done all they could.
It will take two weeks to get the advice of the solicitor. Maybe he will be here
then, and maybe he won't."

Mr. Marshall was called to the chair, and President Peach said: "We should treat these people the same as we do others. They are just as good, but no better. The contractors won't accept work from them. We don't want to vary from our regular rule for this; it should take its regular course. That property is no better than any other."

"That's property not the people," said
Mr. Stewart.

"I am not addressing my remarks to you," retorted the president.

Mr. Challis moved that a contract be entered into with Mr. Ryan, but Mr.
Stewart said that couldn't be done, and upon motion of Doctor Marshall the matter was laid over until the solicitor
could be consulted.

Mr. Stewart then wanted to know if the solicitor was supposed to attend the meetings of council. He said he had been absent time and again, and now this improvement was to be delayed
on his account.

A petition from the board of education
to pave the gutter on Sheridan avenue,
was referred back with the statement that when the board laid the sidewalks council would talk to them.

The following communication was presented and caused a great deal of discussion:

"I hereby serve notice to said council to fill and move the river road south of the street car line, as it is on my property as it now stands. I will give you 60 days in which to do it. If not done then will close up the road.

MRS. BENJ. HARKER,
PER. A. L. HARKER, Agent.

Mr. Peach said he did not believe they could do it, and Doctor Marshall said that when the viewers went over the road they had located it out in the river.
He also stated that Mr. Laughlin intended to put two kilns in the road in the near future. After a great deal of ancient history had been discussed, the communication was received and placed on file.

On motion of Mr. Peach, the mayor
was instructed to see that the ordinance in regard to vagrants was enforced, and an ordinance to improve Lisbon street
was referred to the engineer and street committee. Mr. Stewart brought up the Eighth street matter, and council will meet Monday evening in adjourned session to view the spot.

Mr. Marshall brought out the East End hill road, and the engineer and solicitor were instructed to secure the right of way as far as possible and commence condemnation proceedings.
Mr. Peach wanted to abandon the lower road, and made a motion to that effect,
but it was voted down.

A proposition from B. C. Simms to donate two feet across Short street if the street was opened was accepted,
and Attorney W. B. Hill asked what had become of the College street matter.
It was explained, and the clerk was instructed to advertise for bids to improve the street. The plat of Pleasant Valley was lost in the shuffle again, and council adjourned.

HANDSOME, RELIABLE GOODS.

Erlanger Has Certainly Made the Hit of the Season.

Have you visited Erlanger's today?
Have you inspected the superb line of new goods for men, boys and youths?
Have you ascertained prices of the same?
Are you aware of the fact that Erlanger can and will supply you with best goods at lower prices than ever offered to purchasers heretofore in the history of East Liverpool? If not, then hasten to this headquarters for clothing and ascertain the fact that grand bargains are being offered; bargains which will be snapped up eagerly; bargains which you never again may have an opportunity of securing. Wide awake and enterprising, Erlanger snaps up a bargain when he sees it, and then, with true business enterprise, shares the bargain with his customers, making them his steady patrons and friends. The true way to make money is to save money, and you can save money on every article of clothing now offered by this enterprising merchant.

On the River.

The river swelled a little during the night, and the marks now show a stage of 1.4 feet. The rise will not last long as there is more hot weather in sight.

The main subject that will be up for discussion at the annual meeting of the Ohio River Improvement association will be the slackwater system. The meeting will be held in Evansville, Ind.,
Oct. 14 and last two days.

THEY'RE GOING RAPIDLY.

And Each Purchaser Is Delighted With
the Investment.

Of course we have reference to the handsome lots on Pleasant Heights. The prices are away down on bed rock, and the terms are more favorable than ever before offered in the history of East Liverpool. Inspect the plat and prices,
and you will be sure to invest.

In Police Court.

No arrests were made last night, and the only person now in the coop is Janitor Richards, of Jethro. He was put in Thursday night, and at his hearing failed to have the necessary coin
to buy his liberty.

The trial of Detective Andrews against
Mrs. Minnis, is set for Monday afternoon, but from the outlook the case will be dropped.

The Last Car.

Advertising car number four of the Barnum and Bailey syndicate arrived in the city early this morning from Wheeling. The car carries 20 lithographers, and is managed by P. S. Mattox. It will leave for Pittsburg tomorrow. The big show is today in Ironton.

Not Well Patronized.

The excursion to Pittsburg was not as well patronized as was anticipated.
Several extra coaches were attached to the early train, but not a passenger was in any one of them.

New fall clothing, hats and furnishings at our full price, which is lower

PETTIT FORMALLY APPOINTED.

Former Canton Boy Honored—Another
Canton Man's Job.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18.—The president has made the following appointments:

George D. Pettit of Pittsburg, formerly of Canton, O., consul at Dusseldorf, Germany; A. Clark Towner of Canton, O., to be assistant commissioner of Indian affairs.

In the list of nominations was a son-in-law of President McKinley and also a vice President Hobart, Frederick L. McKinley becoming receiver of public moneys at Guthrie, O. T., and Edward F. Hobart, who was a candidate for governor of the territory, receiver of public moneys at Santa Fe.

PENROSE AT THE WHITE HOUSE.

Urged the Appointment of Hicks as Postmaster at Philadelphia.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 17.—Among the president's callers, before the cabinet assembled, were Senator Penrose and Representatives Butler and Wanger of Pennsylvania, Representatives Hepburn
of Iowa, Hurley of New York, Senator
Thurston of Nebraska and ex-Secretary
Hoke Smith of Georgia. The last named called simply to pay his respects.

Senator Penrose, among other things,
urged the appointment of Thomas B.
Hicks as postmaster of Philadelphia.
The factions in Philadelphia are united,
it is understood, and Mr. Hicks' appointment will be made very shortly.

General Lee in Washington.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18.—General
Fitzhugh Lee, consul general at Havana, has arrived in the city. The president, it is understood, desires to have a talk with the consul general
over the situation in Cuba before his departure for Massachusetts next week,
and General Lee's visit here is presumably for that purpose.

$80,000,000 Chinese Loan.

SHANGHAI, Sept. 18.—The Hooley-
Jameson syndicate has concluded negotiations by which it will take up $100-
which the Chinese government will issue at 94.

THE OLD RIVER ROAD

Causes Council to Talk a Great Deal.

IT MAY SOON BE FENCED IN

Mrs. Harker Sends an Interesting Communication—Several Hours Spent In Discussing Improvements—Some Good Results.

Messrs. Ashbaugh and Horwell were
the only members of council who were not present last evening when the session was called to order. The Democratic central committee were all present, but adjourned to police court when
council took possession of the room.

The ordinance granting permission to
T. C. Forster to construct a street railway was read, and the clerk announced
that it was on its third reading. Doctor
Marshall at once raised a point that it was only on its first reading. Although
it had been read three times it had practically been done at the same meeting.
The ordinance was then passed under
suspension of the rules.

The ordinance licensing bill posters
came next, and Mr. Stewart said its purpose was to stop the indiscriminate passing of bills in the city by foreign merchants. Dr. Marshall said that no person should be given the privilege to throw bills around the streets as he pleased, and wanted a clause inserted
in the ordinance that all advertising matter should be placed in the
houses and not in the streets or yards.
The ordinance was then referred to President Peach, Mr. Stewart, and Solicitor Grosshans, with instructions to have the necessary clause inserted and
report at the next meeting.

The ordinance to improve the west
side of Jefferson street from the railroad
to Third street was passed, after Commissioner Finley had explained that it had cost the city no less than $150 last year in repairing the street after heavy rains.

Clerk Hanley stated that he had a petition and waiver signed by all the property owners on College street, except the railroad company, in which they agreed
to pay for improving the street, providing it did not exceed the rate per square yard of Cook street. They also agreed to waive all publication of notices
in the improvement.

Mr. Challis moved the request be granted, and Mr. Olmhausen seconded.
Mr. Peach wanted to know if the street railway proposed to pay their share in installments. The request was granted, and the subject of entering into a contract was discussed.

Mr. Peach was not in favor of it until they were sure the bridge company
would put up their share of the money,
and stated that the contractor would
not take them unless he was backed by the city. Mr. Marshall wanted to know
if the contractor would be willing to take the job by private contracts and leave the city out of it. This called forth the remark from Mr. Ryan that E.
A. Freshwater still had $700 coming to him from jobs in the city which he took
by private contracts, and he had no way
of collecting it, while if the city had been back of him the amount could have been placed on the tax duplicate.

Mr. Stewart said that if the city paved
the street and the bridge company did
not pay up, they could issue bonds, as
the property was worth it. Mr. Olmhausen moved the matter be submitted to the solicitor, while Mr. Peach thought
a committee should be appointed to find out what the bridge company proposed to do. The motion got no second.

The same truth holds good with
the worst case of SORE MOUTH.
Thousands have tried and endorse
Tonsiline as a grand family remedy

ways at hand, it saves dollars and
lives.

Tonsiline costs 25 and 50 Cents,
at all druggists.

THE TONSILINE CO., - CANTON, O.

and Mr. Stewart remarked that the bridge company had done all they could
when they signed the waiver. Clerk
the same shape as the rest of the property.

"The rest of them mean what they say," said Mr. Peach.

"I don't believe the president has very much confidence in the bridge company," remarked Mr. Cain.

"Not the best in the world," retorted
Mr. Peach.

"We have been working five nights
on matters that should be settled in one night," said Mr. Stewart. "The property owners have done all they could.
It will take two weeks to get the advice
of the solicitor. Maybe he will be here
then, and maybe he won't."

Mr. Marshall was called to the chair,
and President Peach said: "We should treat these people the same as we do
others. They are just as good, but no better. The contractors won't accept work
from them. We don't want to vary from our regular rule for this; it should take its regular course. That property is no better than any other."

"That's property not the people," said
Mr. Stewart.

"I am not addressing my remarks to you," retorted the president.

Mr. Challis moved that a contract be entered into with Mr. Ryan, but Mr.
Stewart said that couldn't be done, and
upon motion of Doctor Marshall the matter was laid over until the solicitor
could be consulted.

Mr. Stewart then wanted to know if the solicitor was supposed to attend the
been absent time and again, and now
this improvement was to be delayed
on his account.

A petition from the board of education
to pave the gutter on Sheridan avenue,
was referred back with the statement
that when the board laid the sidewalks
council would talk to them.

The following communication was presented and caused a great deal of discussion:

"I hereby serve notice to said council
to fill and move the river road south of the street car line, as it is on my property as it now stands. I will give you 60 days in which to do it. If not done
then will close up the road.

MRS. BENJ. HARKER,
PER. A. L. HARKER, Agent.

Mr. Peach said he did not believe they could do it, and Doctor Marshall said
that when the viewers went over the road they had located it out in the river.
He also stated that Mr. Laughlin intended to put two kilns in the road in the near future. After a great deal of ancient history had been discussed, the communication was received and placed on file.

On motion of Mr. Peach, the mayor
was instructed to see that the ordinance
in regard to vagrants was enforced, and
an ordinance to improve Lisbon street
was referred to the engineer and street
committee. Mr. Stewart brought up the Eighth street matter, and council will meet Monday evening in adjourned session to view the spot.

Mr. Marshall brought out the East End hill road, and the engineer and solicitor were instructed to secure the right of way as far as possible and
commence condemnation proceedings.
Mr. Peach wanted to abandon the lower
road, and made a motion to that effect,
but it was voted down.

A proposition from B. C. Simms to donate two feet across Short street if
the street was opened was accepted,
and Attorney W. B. Hill asked what had become of the College street matter.
It was explained, and the clerk was instructed to advertise for bids to improve the street. The plat of Pleasant Valley was lost in the shuffle again, and
council adjourned.

On the River.

The river swelled a little during the night, and the marks now show a stage
of 1.4 feet. The rise will not last long as there is more hot weather in sight.

Ohio River Improvement association will be the slackwater system. The meeting will be held in Evansville, Ind.,
Oct. 14 and last two days.

THEY'RE GOING RAPIDLY.

And Each Purchaser Is Delighted With
the Investment.

Of course we have reference to the handsome lots on Pleasant Heights. The prices are away down on bed rock, and
the terms are more favorable than ever before offered in the history of East
Liverpool. Inspect the plat and prices,
and you will be sure to invest.

In Police Court.

No arrests were made last night, and
Janitor Richards, of Jethro. He was put in Thursday night, and at his hearing failed to have the necessary coin
to buy his liberty.

The trial of Detective Andrews against
Mrs. Minnis, is set for Monday afternoon, but from the outlook the case will
be dropped.

The Last Car.

Advertising car number four of the Barnum and Bailey syndicate arrived in the city early this morning from Wheel-
ing. The car carries 20 lithographers,
and is managed by P. S. Mattox. It will leave for Pittsburgh tomorrow. The big show is today in Ironton.

Not Well Patronized.

The excursion to Pittsburgh was not as well patronized as was anticipated.
Several extra coaches were attached to the early train, but not a passenger was
in any one of them.

PETTIT FORMALLY APPOINTED.

Former Canton Boy Honored—Another
Canton Man's Job.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18.—The president has made the following appointments:

George D. Pettit of Pittsburg, formerly of Canton, O., consul at Dussel-
dorf, Germany; A. Clark Towner of Canton, O., to be assistant commissioner of Indian affairs.

In the list of nominations was a son of President McKinley and also a son of President Hobart, Frederick L. McKinley becoming receiver of public moneys at Guthrie, O. T., and Edward F. Hobart, who was a candidate for governor of the territory, receiver of public moneys at Santa Fe.

PENROD AT THE WHITE HOUSE.

Urged the Appointment of Hicks as Postmaster at Philadelphia.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 17.—Among the
president's callers, before the cabinet
assembled, were Senator Penrose and Representatives Butler and Wanger of Pennsylvania, Representatives Hepburn
of Iowa, Hurley of New York, Senator
Thurston of Nebraska and ex-Secretary
Hoke Smith of Georgia. The last
named called simply to pay his respects.
Senator Penrose, among other things,
urged the appointment of Thomas B.
Hicks as postmaster of Philadelphia.
The factions in Philadelphia are united.
It is understood, and Mr. Hicks' appointment will be made very shortly.

General Lee in Washington.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18.—General
Fitzhugh Lee, consul general at Havana, has arrived in the city. The president, it is understood, desires to have a talk with the consul general
over the situation in Cuba before his departure for Massachusetts next week,
and General Lee's visit here is presumably for that purpose.

SHANGHAI, Sept. 18.—The Hooley-
Jameson syndicate has concluded negotiations by which it will take up $10-000,000 ($80,000,000) of 5 per cent bonds, which the Chinese government will issue at 94.

A VERY WARM TRIAL

Caused No End of Amusement
In Squire Hill's Court.

BAD LANGUAGE WAS USED

According to Witnesses, and the Principal Parties Had a Few Words During the Hearing—Bound to Court For Assault and Battery.

The case of S. M. Dobbs versus Mr. and Mrs. John Young for assault and battery was heard this morning in the court of Squire Hill, and the parties were bound over to court in the sum of $50 each.

Mrs. Dobbs testified that Mrs. Young was in the habit of making insulting remarks to her, and on the day in question had executed a jig in front of the house, and she told her to move on. Mrs. Young called her husband who rushed in the yard, and when he arrived at the porch she hit him on the jaw with an ewer. Mr. and Mrs. Young then threw stones at her, and she retaliated.

Mrs. Young smiled at the witness and there came near being another row in the court, but Squire Hill managed to keep the peace.

Mr. Dobbs knew nothing about this particular instance, but said he had seen Mrs. Young standing in the road on different occasions taunting his wife.

Mrs. Walter Young was with Mrs. Young the day the trouble happened, but did not see or hear any of the trouble as she was too badly scared when the ewer broke.

Mr. Young testified that he had thrown no stones, but heard Mrs. Dobbs use some bad language.

Mrs. Young said she was going up the hill and Mrs. Dobbs began yelling at her. She called her husband and the trouble ensued, but neither of them threw any stones. She also said Mrs. Dobbs used bad language.

AN UNFORTUNATE HAPPENING.

Mrs. Roser Lost Her Pension on the Street.

Mrs. Roser, a soldier's widow who resides at 155 Third street, drew $36, her pension, from the First National bank yesterday afternoon, and walked to the Diamond. Upon arriving there she discovered that she had lost $30 of the amount. Mrs. Roser depends largely upon this to meet current expenses, and she will heartily thank the finder of the money if he is so kind as to return it.

HER MONEY ALL GONE

A Little Girl Was Put Off a Passenger Train.

CAME HERE FROM WELLSVILLE

She Was Found Crying In the Street and Was Cared For Until This Morning, When Her Friends Were Located—Indignation Over a Conductor's Action.

Yesterday evening a little girl, not more than a dozen years old, stood at the Cleveland and Pittsburg passenger station crying as though her heart would break. She was seen by Landlord Lakel and taken to the hotel where she told her story. Late in the afternoon she started from a point down the river for this place where her friends were to meet her. She only had five cents when she reached Wellsville, and the conductor put her off. With the money she reached this place by the street railway, but her friends had left the depot and could not be found. She spent the night at the hotel, and this morning her father, C. H. Lane, an employe of the Thompson pottery, was located, and took her home. Parties who heard of the matter were highly indignant when they learned of the conductor's action and it is probable he will be reported to the railway officials.

DIED IN INDIANA.

A Former Resident of This Place Has Passed Away.

Mrs. Isaac Burlingame has been notified of the death of her sister, Mrs. Rebecca Ketchum, at Loogootee, Ind. Deceased formerly resided near this city, and was married to W. C. Sept. 20—James Dixon against the Pennsylvania company; Cornelius Sullivan versus same; Wing & Evans versus Specialty Glass company. Tuesday—John B. McKinnon versus Pennsylvania company Fannie McFarland versus W. C. Chamberlain; E. Curran versus East Liverpool. Wednesday—William Hall, Jr., versus D. E. McNicol; George S. Garner versus same; W. K. Gillespie versus William Edwards. Thursday—Lucinda Huth versus William J. Adams; H. W. Crawford versus Thomas Chamberlain; Riggs & Koch versus E. S. Kelly; Kepner Furniture company versus J. A. Norris. Friday—C. N. Schmick versus I. B. Cameron; M. Quinn versus Pioneer Pottery; Maple versus Maple.

The will in the estate of the late Luke Hayes, Liverpool township, was probated this morning.

On application Judge Boone gave Maria L. Gaston and W. H. Calvin letters of administration on the estate of the late Samuel Gaston, of St. Clair township. A bond of $40,000 was required.

The jury to which the case of William Tucker against Phillip Morley was tried yesterday returned a verdict in favor of Tucker, giving him $350 damages. He asked $5,000 for false imprisonment.

The Wellsville soap factory has been ordered reappraised.

RUSH AT THE DEPOT.

The Greatest Day of a Great Week In Shipments.

If any person is in doubt as to whether prosperity has struck this section, let him take a walk to the freight depot, and then all doubt will be cast aside. The outbound platform presented an appearance this morning that is not often seen, although shipments during the month have been heavy. Casks of all sizes were there, and a string of drays were at the platform only awaiting a chance to put off their loads so they would not block the roadway. If the present rush continues extra hands will be employed.

IT'S A PECULIAR CASE

Miss Lewis Made a Charge In Beaver County,

BUT LATER WITHDREW IT

She Attempted to Leave Town, and Became Involved In a Quarrel With the Lady of the House Where She Was Employed—Watched During the Day.

About three weeks ago Miss Eva May Lewis, of this city, had John Housenfield, of Beaver, arrested on a charge of a delicate nature, and he was lodged in jail.

Previous to this time she made complaint in a court of this city, and a number of prominent people interested themselves in her behalf. When the case was heard the young man managed to secure his release on a technicality. He was arrested again last Monday, and Attorney Cunningham sent word to the city for the young woman to appear at once, and her friends here supposed she had gone, but learned yesterday that she had not left the city. Last evening she telegraphed to Beaver and withdrew the charge.

Not knowing the law on the subject she was told to remain here as a charge of perjury may be entered against her. This morning she packed up and prepared to leave, but the lady with whom she is staying refused to let her go and the girl struck her. The lady did not relish this and the girl was given a sound thrashing. A squire was called in to settle the disturbance. It is probable the girl will leave the city this evening if no charges are entered against her.

WE WILL HAVE MUSIC

Professor Harper Was Employed by the Board.

FIVE HUNDRED DOLLARS SALARY

Will Be Paid For the Eight Months of the School Year—Disposed of a Lot of Bills—Professor Rayman Explains the Situation.

The board of education met in regular session last evening with all members except Mr. Murphy present. The meeting was opened by Mr. McClain. When the minutes had been approved Mr. McGraw introduced Mr. Moore, janitor of the Trentvale school. He commenced his remarks by saying he came there for the purpose of letting the board know what was going on in that section. He suggested a high fence be erected about the building to hide from view the actions of some of the neighbors. President Vodrey said the matter would be looked after, and the gentleman departed.

Mr. Norris on behalf of the music committee reported that a proposition had been made Professor Harper to teach music in the schools for $500 a term. As the proposition had been accepted by him the committee recommended it.

"I don't think we could spend $500 to a better advantage," said Mr. Cripps, "and as he agrees to furnish the music sheets at cost, I think we should employ him. Take the town of Rochester, little children can read music as well as they can the Third reader. I tell you gentlemen of the board, we are behind the age in our schools, in some things, and we all know it. I want to see music in our schools, and I want it to be a permanent study."

Professor Rayman was called upon and said: "I am an enthusiast on the subject of music. When you have music in the schools the merit of the scholar is elevated, and has a telling effect on home life. There is a charm about music that will linger with a person all through life. I would like to see the study in our schools."

Mr. Cripps moved Professor Harper be elected musical instructor for eight months, at a salary of $500, and to furnish the music to the school at cost. The motion was carried without a dissenting vote.

The following bills were ordered paid:

J. H. Porter, $26.50; Smead Furnace company, $5.27; A. Watson, $5.18; Frank Crook, $7.77; William G. Johnson, Pittsburgh, $117.68; Robert Hall, $376.48; J. C. Lutton, $26.25; T. O. Timmons, $7; Burrows Bros., $14.40; News Review, $20.68; Crisis, $6.25; Arbutnot Bros., $5.58; John A. George, $3.65; Piqua School Furniture company, $741.20; Ginn & Co., $401.68; Werner School Book company, $56.25; Harper Bros., $20; American Book company, $524.70; Raub & Co., $8.64; D. C. Heath & Co., $34.50; Shelden & Co., $56; Union Planing Mill company, $65; Diamond Hardware company, $4.70; Howard Chemical company, $3; J. T. Smith on contract, $500; Adams Express company, $1.65; Western Union Telegraph company, $1.36; William Pollock, $1.65; Eagle Hardware company, $16.41; T. J. Thomas, $27.24; W. T. Norris, $1.64; Insurance on Sixth street and Bradshaw buildings, $142.50; A. Rattray, $19.20; board of school examiners, $30; total, $3,289.92.

The bids for the plumbing of the school in Bradshaw addition, were opened, and the contract was awarded to the Kinsey Plumbing company, who offered to do the work for $31.

Professor Rayman was given the floor, and said that school had been in session nine days, and the teachers had their classes well organized. "The schools are not crowded as much as heretofore, except the lower grades in the Central building. One grade of the West End school was removed to the Sixth street building. The boundary lines formed some time ago have been slightly changed to remedy the crowded condition of some of the schools."

The building committee reported that the new building in Bradshaw addition would be ready for occupancy one week from Monday. The seats are now being placed, and all the work will be completed within the time limit.

The building committee were instructed to make necessary improvements on the Gardendale and Trentvale buildings and report at the next meeting.

The case of Miss Mary Smith, whose certificate has expired, was referred to the board of examiners.

The meeting adjourned, and a waiting salesman was left out in the cold.

CORRUPTION

Is Now Due According to Rule and Present Indications.

John R. McLean, when about to operate in Ohio politics, follows a wise rule. All Democrats who know too much and are not at the time tied up, are apt to talk too much; they are called in and either attached to the staff of his newspaper or otherwise hired to do certain work.

At the present time Allen O. Myers, once a regular writer on the newspaper referred to, but for about five years unconnected with that defunct establishment, during which time he told many things that were true, is back again doing the behest of John R. McLean.

Myers is McLean's confidential man at the Democratic headquarters in the city of Columbus. According to Myers, McLean "believes every man has his price," a belief evidently founded upon his own connection with Ohio Democratic politics.

So that whatever McLean's confidential manager has to say at a time when McLean is a candidate for United States senate from Ohio, has not only its natural piquancy and picturesque quality which cling to all of Myers' mental output, but a certain value that ought not to be lost.

Myers says of the Democratic party in Ohio:

"It is an unfortunate habit of the Ohio Democrats to denounce the corrupt practices of the Republicans one year and proceed to indulge in the same evils the next."

Last year the Ohio Democrats "denounced," as they termed it, the alleged corrupt practices of the Republicans. The fact that there were no corrupt practices of Republicans last year is of no avail from the Democratic standpoint. They said there were and "denounced" them and kept on denouncing them until Senator Foraker showed conclusively in a speech in the United States senate that these Democrats have been "denouncing" what did not exist. But from the Democratic standpoint there were corrupt practices and they were "denounced." According to Myers' statement, this is the year that they are to "proceed to indulge in the same evils;" that is, in corrupt practices.

With McLean running for the senate and a millionaire mine owner running for governor by the grace of the same McLean, and with Myers in charge of the confidential arrangements at headquarters, surely the Ohio Democrats are in fine trim to carry out the Myers program.

KLONDIKE NIGHT STICK.

The Most Gorgeous Club Ever Twirled by a Policeman.

Pleasant D. Linville, a special policeman of San Francisco, has the most valuable and artistic billy on the coast. While the guest of his old friends, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence J. Berry, who were celebrating their return from the Klondike, Berry hid the weapon. Linville had carried the stick for 20 years and was grieved to lose it.

A fortnight later he was again dining with his friends. Berry proposed Linville's health, which was drunk, and after puzzling his guest by a eulogistic speech presented to him the old club, now transformed into a thing of beauty. Gold nuggets worth $300, which Mrs. Berry had taken from her own claim in the Klondike, were deeply set around one end of the handle, while a broad band of virgin gold around the other end bore the legend, "From Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Berry of Klondike to Pleasant D. Linville, as a token of friendship. Sept. 1, 1897."—Exchange.

The Klondike Lyre.

We want to go to Klondike. We want to fuss around
Where there are chunks and hunks of gold that cover all the ground.
We want it so when Willie dear shall stub his little toe
We'll have to dig the metal out before the skin can grow.
We want it so our wives can take their frying pans and walk
And fill them up with gold meanwhile—oh, that's the stuff to talk!
We want it so that any day we may 'steen thousands strike,
The way that everybody does up there in rich Klondike.

We want it so that when we eat—you notice how I shout—
We'll have to pick our dratted teeth to get the nuggets out.
We yearn to live a little while, although they say it's cold,
Where the common chairs are gilded and the rockers are pure gold.
We want to be a "Klondike King" and with the monarchs stand.
A crown upon our foreheads and a harp (of gold) in hand.
We long to have a rim of gold on our most common bike,
The way that everybody does up there in rich Klondike.

We want to feel as they have felt who "fasted" with the ground
And every shovelful they dug a cool five hundred found.
And when a midnight burglar comes we'd like to him to say,
"Just dig awhile in my back yard and cart the stuff away."
Oh, I tell you there's felicity and yellow joy galore

WE WILL HAVE MUSIC

Professor Harper Was Employed by the Board.

FIVE HUNDRED DOLLARS SALARY

Will Be Paid For the Eight Months of the School Year—Disposed of a Lot of Bills—Professor Rayman Explains the Situation.

The board of education met in regular session last evening with all members except Mr. Murphy present. The meeting was opened by Mr. McClain. When the minutes had been approved Mr. McGraw introduced Mr. Moore, janitor of the Trentvale school. He commenced his remarks by saying he came there for the purpose of letting the board know what was going on in that section. He suggested a high fence be erected about the building to hide from view the actions of some of the neighbors. President Vodrey said the matter would be looked after, and the gentleman departed.

Mr. Norris on behalf of the music committee reported that a proposition had been made Professor Harper to teach music in the schools for $500 a term. As the proposition had been accepted by him the committee recommended it.

"I don't think we could spend $500 to a better advantage," said Mr. Cripps, "and as he agrees to furnish the music sheets at cost, I think we should employ him. Take the town of Rochester, little children can read music as well as they can the Third reader. I tell you gentlemen of the board, we are behind the age in our schools, in some things, and we all know it. I want to see music in our schools, and I want it to be a permanent study."

Professor Rayman was called upon and said: "I am an enthusiast on the subject of music. When you have music in the schools the merit of the scholar is elevated, and has a telling effect on home life. There is a charm about music that will linger with a person all through life. I would like to see the study in our schools."

Mr. Cripps moved Professor Harper be elected musical instructor for eight months, at a salary of $500, and to furnish the music to the school at cost. The motion was carried without a dissenting vote.

The following bills were ordered paid:

J. H. Porter, $26.50; Smead Furnace company, $5.27; A. Watson, $5.18; Frank Crook, $7.77; William G. Johnson, Pittsburg, $117.68; Robert Hall, $376.48; J. C. Lutton, $26.25; T. O. Timmons, $7; Burrows Bros., $14.40; News Review, $20.68; Crisis, $6.25; Arbutnot Bros., $5.58; John A. George, $3.65; Piqua School Furniture company, $741.20; Ginn & Co., $401.68; Werner School Book company, $56.25; Harper Bros., $20; American Book company, $524.70; Raub & Co., $8.64; D. C. Heath & Co., $34.50; Sheldon & Co., $56; Union Planing Mill company, $65; Diamond Hardware company, $4.70; Howard Chemical company, $3; J. T. Smith on contract, $500; Adams Express company, $1.65; Western Union Telegraph company, $1.36; William Pollock, $1.65; Eagle Hardware company, $16.41; T. J. Thomas, $27.24; W. T. Norris, $1.64; Insurance on Sixth street and Bradshaw buildings, $142.50; A. Rattray, $19.30; board of school examiners, $30; total, $3,289.92.

The bids for the plumbing of the school in Bradshaw addition, were opened, and the contract was awarded to the Kinsey Plumbing company, who offered to do the work for $31.

Professor Rayman was given the floor, and said that school had been in session nine days, and the teachers had their classes well organized. "The schools are not crowded as much as heretofore, except the lower grades in the Central building. One grade of the West End school was removed to the Sixth street building. The boundary lines formed some time ago have been slightly changed to remedy the crowded condition of some of the schools."

The building committee reported that the new building in Bradshaw addition would be ready for occupancy one week from Monday. The seats are now being placed, and all the work will be completed within the time limit.

The building committee were instructed to make necessary improvements on the Gardendale and Trentvale buildings and report at the next meeting.

The case of Miss Mary Smith, whose certificate has expired, was referred to the board of examiners.

The meeting adjourned, and a waiting salesman was left out in the cold.

CORRUPTION

Is Now Due According to Rule and Present Indications.

John R. McLean, when about to operate in Ohio politics, follows a wise rule. All Democrats who know too much and are not at the time tied up, are apt to talk too much; they are called in and either attached to the staff of his newspaper or otherwise hired to do certain work.

At the present time Allen O. Myers, once a regular writer on the newspaper referred to, but for about five years unconnected with that delectable establishment, during which time he told many things that were true, is back again doing the behest of John R. McLean.

Myers is McLean's confidential man at the Democratic headquarters in the city of Columbus. According to Myers, McLean "believes every man has his price," a belief evidently founded upon his own connection with Ohio Democratic politics.

So that whatever McLean's confidential manager has to say at a time when McLean is a candidate for United States senate from Ohio, has not only its natural piquancy and picturesqueness which cling to all of Myers' mental output, but a certain value that ought not to be lost.

Myers says of the Democratic party in Ohio:

"It is an unfortunate habit of the Ohio Democrats to denounce the corrupt practices of the Republicans one year and proceed to indulge in the same evils the next."

Last year the Ohio Democrats "denounced," as they termed it, the alleged corrupt practices of the Republicans. The fact that there were no corrupt practices of Republicans last year is of no avail from the Democratic standpoint. They said there were and "denounced" them and kept on denouncing them until Senator Foraker showed conclusively in a speech in the United States senate that these Democrats have been "denouncing" what did not exist. But from the Democratic standpoint there were corrupt practices and they were "denounced." According to Myers' statement, this is the year that they are to "proceed to indulge in the same evils;" that is, in corrupt practices.

With McLean running for the senate and a millionaire mine owner running for governor by the grace of the same McLean, and with Myers in charge of the confidential arrangements at headquarters, surely the Ohio Democrats are in fine trim to carry out the Myers program.

KLONDIKE NIGHT STICK.

The Most Gorgeous Club Ever Twirled by a Policeman.

Pleasant D. Linville, a special policeman of San Francisco, has the most valuable and artistic billy on the coast. While the guest of his old friends, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence J. Berry, who were celebrating their return from the Klondike, Berry hid the weapon. Linville had carried the stick for 20 years and was grieved to lose it.

A fortnight later he was again dining with his friends. Berry proposed Linville's health, which was drunk, and after puzzling his guest by a eulogistic speech presented to him the old club, now transformed into a thing of beauty. Gold nuggets worth $300, which Mrs. Berry had taken from her own claim in the Klondike, were deeply set around one end of the handle, while a broad band of virgin gold around the other end bore the legend, "From Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Berry of Klondike to Pleasant D. Linville, as a token of friendship. Sept. 1, 1897."—Exchange.

The Klondike Lyre.

We want to go to Klondike. We want to fuss around
Where there are chunks and hunks of gold that cover all the ground.
We want it so when Willie dear shall stub his little toe
We'll have to dig the metal out before the skin can grow.
We want it so our wives can take their frying pans and walk
And fill them up with gold meanwhile—oh, that's the stuff to talk!
We want it so that any day we may 'steen thousands strike,
The way that everybody does up there in rich Klondike.

We want it so that when we eat—you notice how I shout—
We'll have to pick our dratted teeth to get the nuggets out.
We yearn to live a little while, although they say it's cold,
Where the common chairs are gilded and the rockers are pure gold.
We want to be a "Klondike King" and with the monarchs stand,
A crown upon our foreheads and a harp (of gold) in hand.
We long to have a rim of gold on our most common bike,
The way that everybody does up there in rich Klondike.

We want to feel as they have felt who "fastled" with the ground
And every shovelful they dug a cool five hundred found.
And when a midnight burglar comes we'd like to him to say,
"Just dig awhile in my back yard and cart the stuff away."
Oh, I tell you there's felicity and yellow joy galore
Up where the people pick up gold until they want no more,
And we long to hurry northward and see what the country's like Where people stumble over gold up there in rich Klondike.

OUR WINNIE IS FOURTH

He Stands Well With the Pitchers of the League.

HIS GOOD RECORD TO DATE

Bobby Cargo Has Been Doing Something, and Todix Carey Only Had One Error Last Week—Goodwin's Won the Game Against Dresden.

Although Winnie Mercer has lost more games than he has won this season, he ranks fourth among the pitchers of the league with the following record: Games played 28; times at bat by opponents, 971; runs scored by opponents, 119; base hits by opponents, 257; earned runs by opponents, 38; average 1.36. Among the hitters he stands thirty-third with 16 runs, 37 hits and an average of .322.

Bobby Cargo in 59 games played with the Canandaigua club, the winners of the New York state league pennant, has a batting average of .307.

George Carey in five games played this week in 20 times at bat made five hits and had 45 putouts, one assist and one error.

Alf Shaw in three games played with Syracuse was 11 times at bat, made two hits and had nine putouts, two assists and one error.

"Tom Brown believes that Callahan is no faster than Win Mercer."

The game yesterday afternoon between Goodwin and Dresden was a close contest, and Jack Darrah demonstrated that he could still play ball. When the fourth inning was reached, with the score 5 to 2 in favor of Goodwin, it was announced that it was 6 o'clock, and Darrah remarked that it was his supper time, and proceeded to go home and the game broke up. The batteries were Darrah and McCurran; Godwin and Baxter.

CUTTING LAMP ROPES.

Some One Is Causing the Light Company Annoyance.

For several months the light company has been annoyed by parties who cut lamp ropes in the suburbs, but not until this week have the vandals extended their operations to the heart of the city.

Twice this week has the rope of the lamp at Sixth and East Market streets been cut in the coil, evidently with the hope that the lamp would fall and break to pieces when being lowered. Trimmer McCoy has had so much experience these past few years that he watches all ropes carefully, and to the present no lamps have been broken.

PLENTY OF STARTERS.

Lawrence Caywood Wins the Five Mile Bicycle Race.

The boys' five mile race last evening at the East End track was hotly contested, and the distance was made in 15:25, unusually fast time for small boys. There were 14 starters, and the race was won by Lawrence Caywood, while Ed Adams and Laughlin Cook finished but a few feet apart. Cook had the misfortune to break his saddle, and rode the last two miles on the pedals.

COMING EVERY DAY.

The Supply of School Supplies Is Increasing.

Superintendent Rayman and some of his teachers have been inconvenienced since the opening of the public schools because of the lack of books and other supplies. Within the last few days the company having the contract have been filling the orders more promptly, and better work has been done in consequence.

THANKED BY MR. BRYAN.

New York Mail and Express Spoke Kindly of His Wreck Experience.

NEW YORK, Sept. 18.—William J. Bryan, in a letter published in The Mail and Express, refers as follows to a recent editorial in that paper regarding Mr. Bryan's work in the Kansas railroad disaster:

"I beg to thank you for your generous words, but am afraid your praise outruns the merit of my work on that occasion. I did no more than the others who escaped uninjured, and none of us did more than could have been expected from any person under like circumstances. Some of the wounded ones were suffering intensely and no one could have refused any assistance which possibly could be rendered. It is often the lot of public men to be criticized when they do not deserve it and I suppose the unmerited commendation which they sometimes receive is necessary to form a just average. However, I appreciate the charity which you, a political opponent, have shown."

The editorial referred to was in part as follows: "His coolness, gentleness and helpful service in the presence of so much confusion, suffering and death disclosed new depths in his character to which every true American will pay a hearty tribute of respect and gratitude. It was the real Mr. Bryan who was on duty in Kansas yesterday."

STOCKHOLDERS OBJECTING.

Oppose the Proposed Silver Policy of the Bank of England.

LONDON, Sept. 18.—The letter of the governor of the Bank of England strengthens the impression among the bankers that the government intends to accede to the bimetallic proposals later, and it is also interpreted as a reply to a request from the government to the bank, asking the latter to co-operate with the former. But it is thought that the fall in the price of silver since the letter was written may change the program.

There is considerable dissatisfaction on the subject among the stockholders of the Bank of England. Robert Benson, a prominent banker, who holds £10,000 of stock as trustee, has notified the bank that he will sell if the silver policy is inaugurated, and he adds that other trustees will do the same.

Excursions to Pittsburgh.

Excursion tickets to Pittsburgh will be sold Thursdays, Sept. 9, 16, 23 and 30, Oct. 7 and 14, from Erie, Ashtabula, Massillon, New Philadelphia, Bellaire, Wheeling, Dennison, Washington, Cadiz, New Cumberland and intermediate ticket stations on the Pennsylvania Lines. The rate will be one fare for round trip, plus 25 cents, which covers admission coupon to the Exposition. Tickets will be sold for regular trains on dates specified, and will be good returning three days, including day of sale. For rates, tickets, time of trains and special information, apply to nearest Pennsylvania Line Ticket Agent.

Excursions to Columbus, O.

Low rate excursion tickets will be sold to Columbus, O., from ticket stations on Pennsylvania Lines in September as follows:

September 21 and 23, Union Veteran Legion National Encampment; return coupons valid September 27. By depositing U. V. L. excursion tickets with Union Station Ticket Agent, Columbus, an extension of return limit may be obtained to leave Columbus not later than October 12.

140 British Killed and Wounded.

CAMP ANAYAT, via Pankajora, Sept. 18.—Severe fighting has taken place between the Second brigade of General Sir Bindon Blood's division and the Mohmunds. The British loss was 140 killed and wounded. The enemy were driven off.

Getting Out Stone.

TIPPECANOE, O., Sept. 18.—The stone quarries in this vicinity are getting out some large stones to be used in the wood pulp factories of the eastern states. Heretofore such stones have been obtained only from Europe, but recent experiments have proven that the Tippecanoe stone is superior.

Ruined Russian Peasants.

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 18.—The bad harvest affects 17 Russian provinces and it is feared it will also be felt in 1898, as the drought has prevented sowing winter wheat in a large area. The immense reserve stocks will prevent a famine, but the peasants are ruined for several years.

Prominent Spaniard Excommunicated.

MADRID, Sept. 18.—The bishop of Marjorca, Balearic island, has excommunicated the Spanish minister of finance, Senor J. Reverter, for taking possession of the treasury of a church in his diocese. The minister proposes to appeal against the bishop to the holy see.

Four Killed in a Wreck.

CHIPPewa FALLS, Wis., Sept. 18.—A head-on collision between two freight trains on the Wisconsin Central railway has occurred west of Chippewa Falls. Four men were killed.

Excursions to Beaver.

Sept. 22-24, low rate excursion tickets will be sold to Beaver from Wellsville and intermediate ticket stations on Pennsylvania lines for Beaver county fair; return coupons valid Sept. 25, inclusive.

Klondyke

JOSEPH LADUE,

the new Bonanza King of the Klondyke Gold Regions, gives the facts. His book reads like "The Arabian Nights," BUT Joseph Ladue KNOWS whereof he writes. He was the first man on the spot when the first gold was discovered last August, 1896. He located one rich claim and immediately purchased twelve others at a low price before their value was known. He has refused $100,000 for any ONE of these claims, as they are rich with virgin gold nuggets, beyond the dream of avarice. Joseph Ladue then at the mouth of the Klondyke and Yukon Rivers, by erecting the first house in the region in September, one month after the gold was first discovered. He bought 178 acres from the government on the city site where his town lots 150x50 are now selling for $5,000 each.

Mr. Ladue was fortunate enough to be successful in his trading post investments to have on hand ample capital to carry out his plans, and there is no man living who is better posted on Alaska and the great North West Territories than Mr. Joseph Ladue. He has just returned from that country to his old home in Schuler Falls, N. Y., where he passed a large portion of his boyhood and early manhood. Mr. Ladue left his home nearly twenty years ago to seek his fortune in the west going first to the Black Hills, where he was successful in gold mining, thence to Arizona and the Pacific coast and finally located in Alaska and the northwest, where he has covered almost the entire country since 1882. Mr. Ladue is a typical pioneer: strong, hardy and resolute—a man of iron as one must needs be to go through the hardships he has and come out with a constitution unbroken and unimpaired at about the age of 43. Mr. Ladue has not only worked his muscles to good advantage to himself with the result of an abundance of the world's goods, far beyond the dreams of men, but he has evidently all this time been closely observing the conditions of that strange country—the Yukon Valley—which has so suddenly become one of the great centers upon which human interest throughout the world is focussed.

When the wonderful stories began to come down from the Yukon country it was naturally concluded that it was at least half exaggeration. That any such amount of gold could be taken in so short a time from a country like that under the most most unfavorable conditions was held to be incredible. But when the great bags of virgin gold began to be poured out upon mint counters in San Francisco under the eyes of the whole world (for modern journalism does this, annihilating time and space) people began to wonder and the wonder grew day by day as the real facts were disclosed, and now people who are well informed as to the facts declare that half the truth has not been told of the golden treasures of the Yukon Valley.

As we have already said, there is no man today alive who knows more about this wonderful country than does Mr. Ladue. What makes his talk of it specially interesting and reliable is the fact that his knowledge of it is practical. It has not been gained from hearsay nor from desultory visits made now and then at certain favorable seasons of the year, but from steady living there through the long summer days and the long winter nights, year in and year out for 15 years, where he now owns the best mining claims on the Klondyke and its tributaries.

In presenting his book to the public we do so knowing that it is by an authority on the subject of which he writes. His first work entitled

"Klondyke Nuggets"

is a brief description of the new gold regions, and anyone desiring authentic information should not fail to avail themselves of our

which places the facts in the possession of our readers. REMEMBER, that our office is the sole distributing point for this locality, having closed exclusive arrangements with Mr. Ladue's publishers.

OUR WINNIE IS FOURTH

He Stands Well With the Pitchers of the League.

HIS GOOD RECORD TO DATE

Bobby Cargo Has Been Doing Something, and Toad Carey Only Had One Error Last Week—Goodwin's Won the Game Against Dresden.

Although Winnie Mercer has lost more games than he has won this season, he ranks fourth among the pitchers of the league with the following record: Games played 28; times at bat by opponents, 971; runs scored by opponents, 119; base hits by opponents, 257; earned runs by opponents, 38; average 1.36. Among the hitters he stands thirty-third with 16 runs, 37 hits and an average of .322.

Bobby Cargo in 59 games played with the Canandaigua club, the winners of the New York state league pennant, has a batting average of .307.

George Carey in five games played this week in 20 times at bat made five hits and had 45 putouts, one assist and one error.

Alf Shaw in three games played with Syracuse was 11 times at bat, made two hits and had nine putouts, two assists and one error.

The Sporting Life says: "Twaddle is the name of Auburn's left fielder. He ought to be able to hold his own in a debate with the umpire."

"Tom Brown believes that Callahan is no faster than Win Mercer."

The game yesterday afternoon between Goodwin and Dresden was a close contest, and Jack Darrah demonstrated that he could still play ball. When the fourth inning was reached, with the score 5 to 2 in favor of Goodwin, it was announced that it was 6 o'clock, and Darrah remarked that it was his supper time, and proceeded to go home and the game broke up. The batteries were Darrah and McCurran; Godwin and Baxter.

CUTTING LAMP ROPES.

Some One Is Causing the Light Company Annoyance.

For several months the light company has been annoyed by parties who cut lamp ropes in the suburbs, but not until this week have the vandals extended their operations to the heart of the city.

Twice this week has the rope of the lamp at Sixth and East Market streets been cut in the coil, evidently with the hope that the lamp would fall and break to pieces when being lowered. Trimmer McCoy has had so much experience these past few years that he watches all ropes carefully, and to the present no lamps have been broken.

PLENTY OF STARTERS.

Lawrence Caywood Wins the Five Mile Bicycle Race.

The boys' five mile race last evening at the East End track was hotly contested, and the distance was made in 15.25, unusually fast time for small boys. There were 14 starters, and the race was won by Lawrence Caywood, while Ed Adams and Laughlin Cook finished but a few feet apart. Cook had the misfortune to break his saddle, and rode the last two miles on the pedals.

COMING EVERY DAY.

The Supply of School Supplies Is Increasing.

Superintendent Rayman and some of his teachers have been inconvenienced since the opening of the public schools because of the lack of books and other supplies. Within the last few days the company having the contract have been filling the orders more promptly, and better work has been done in consequence.

Notice.

All members of Favorite tent, No. 175, and Faithful tent, No. 2, Jr. I. O. R., are hereby notified to meet in their hall at 9 a. m., Sunday, Sept. 19, to attend church with Beacon Light tent at Wellsville. By order tents.

GEORGE SMITH,
Recording Secretary.

Going to New York.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Taylor will leave on Monday for New York where they will remain a few weeks. In company with a party of friends from Steubenville they will visit West Point and other places of interest in the east.

Tandems and bicycles for rent at W. O. Hamilton's.

THANKED BY MR. BRYAN.

New York Mail and Express Spoke Kindly of His Wreck Experience.

NEW YORK, Sept. 18.—William J. Bryan, in a letter published in The Mail and Express, refers as follows to a recent editorial in that paper regarding Mr. Bryan's work in the Kansas railroad disaster:

"I beg to thank you for your generous words, but am afraid your praise outruns the merit of my work on that occasion. I did no more than the others who escaped uninjured, and none of us did more than could have been expected from any person under like circumstances. Some of the wounded ones were suffering intensely and no one could have refused any assistance which possibly could be rendered. It is often the lot of public men to be criticized when they do not deserve it and I suppose the unmerited commendation which they sometimes receive is necessary to form a just average. However, I appreciate the charity which you, a political opponent, have shown."

The editorial referred to was in part as follows: "His coolness, gentleness and helpful service in the presence of so much confusion, suffering and death disclosed new depths in his character to which every true American will pay a hearty tribute of respect and gratitude. It was the real Mr. Bryan who was on duty in Kansas yesterday."

STOCKHOLDERS OBJECTING.

Oppose the Proposed Silver Policy of the Bank of England.

LONDON, Sept. 18.—The letter of the governor of the Bank of England strengthens the impression among the bankers that the government intends to accede to the bimetallic proposals later, and it is also interpreted as a reply to a request from the government to the bank, asking the latter to co-operate with the former. But it is thought that the fall in the price of silver since the letter was written may change the program.

There is considerable dissatisfaction on the subject among the stockholders of the Bank of England. Robert Benson, a prominent banker, who holds £10,000 of stock as trustee, has notified the bank that he will sell if the silver policy is inaugurated, and he adds that other trustees will do the same.

Excursions to Pittsburg.

Excursion tickets to Pittsburg will be sold Thursdays, Sept. 9, 16, 23 and 30, Oct. 7 and 14, from Erie, Ashtabula, Massillon, New Philadelphia, Bellaire, Wheeling, Dennison, Washington, Cadiz, New Cumberland and intermediate ticket stations on the Pennsylvania Lines. The rate will be one fare for round trip, plus 25 cents, which covers admission coupon to the Exposition. Tickets will be sold for regular trains on dates specified, and will be good returning three days, including day of sale. For rates, tickets, time of trains and special information, apply to nearest Pennsylvania Line Ticket Agent.

Excursions to Columbus, O.

Low rate excursion tickets will be sold to Columbus, O., from ticket stations on Pennsylvania Lines in September as follows:

September 21 and 23, Union Veteran Legion National Encampment; return coupons valid September 27. By depositing U. V. L. excursion tickets with Union Station Ticket Agent, Columbus, an extension of return limit may be obtained to leave Columbus not later than October 12.

140 British Killed and Wounded.

CAMP ANAYAT, via Pankajora, Sept. 18.—Severe fighting has taken place between the Second brigade of General Sir Bindon Blood's division and the Mohmuds. The British loss was 140 killed and wounded. The enemy were driven off.

Getting Out Stone.

TIPPECANOE, O., Sept. 18.—The stone quarries in this vicinity are getting out some large stones to be used in the wood pulp factories of the eastern states. Heretofore such stones have been obtained only from Europe, but recent experiments have proven that the Tippecanoe stone is superior.

Ruined Russian Peasants.

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 18.—The bad harvest affects 17 Russian provinces and it is feared it will also be felt in 1898, as the drought has prevented sowing winter wheat in a large area. The immense reserve stocks will prevent a famine, but the peasants are ruined for several years.

Prominent Spaniard Excommunicated. MADRID, Sept. 18.—The bishop of Marjorca, Balearic island, has excommunicated the Spanish minister of finance, Senor J. Reverter, for taking possession of the treasury of a church in his diocese. The minister proposes to appeal against the bishop to the holy see.

Four Killed in a Wreck.

CHIPPewa FALLS, Wis., Sept. 18.—A head-on collision between two freight trains on the Wisconsin Central railway has occurred west of Chippewa Falls. Four men were killed.

Excursions to Beaver.

Sept. 22-24, low rate excursion tickets will be sold to Beaver from Wellsville and intermediate ticket stations on Pennsylvania lines for Beaver county fair; return coupons valid Sept. 25, inclusive.

Klondyke

JOSEPH LADUE,

the new Bonanza King of the Klondyke Gold Regions, gives the facts. His book reads like "The Arabian Nights," BUT Joseph Ladue KNOWS whereof he writes. He was the first man on the spot when the first gold was discovered last August, 1896. He located one rich claim and immediately purchased twelve others at a low price before their value was known. He has refused $100,000 for any ONE of these claims, as they are rich with virgin gold nuggets, beyond the dream of avarice. Joseph Ladue then at the mouth of the Klondyke and Yukon Rivers, by erecting the first house in the region in September, one month after the gold was first discovered. He bought 178 acres from the government on the city site where his town lots 150x50 are now selling for $5,000 each.

Mr. Ladue was fortunate enough to be successful in his trading post investments to have on hand ample capital to carry out his plans, and there is no man living who is better posted on Alaska and the great North West Territories than Mr. Joseph Ladue. He has just returned from that country to his old home in Schuler Falls, N. Y., where he passed a large portion of his boyhood and early manhood. Mr. Ladue left his home nearly twenty years ago to seek his fortune in the west going first to the Black Hills, where he was successful in gold mining, thence to Arizona and the Pacific coast and finally located in Alaska and the northwest, where he has covered almost the entire country since 1882. Mr. Ladue is a typical pioneer: strong, hardy and resolute—a man of iron as one must needs be to go through the hardships he has and come out with a constitution unbroken and unimpaired at about the age of 43. Mr. Ladue has not only worked his muscles to good advantage to himself with the result of an abundance of the world's goods, far beyond the dreams of men, but he has evidently all this time been closely observing the conditions of that strange country—the Yukon Valley—which has so suddenly become one of the great centers upon which human interest throughout the world is focussed.

When the wonderful stories began to come down from the Yukon country it was naturally concluded that it was at least half exaggeration. That any such amount of gold could be taken in so short a time from a country like that under the most most unfavorable conditions was held to be incredible. But when the great bags of virgin gold began to be poured out upon mint counters in San Francisco under the eyes of the whole world (for modern journalism does this, annihilating time and space) people began to wonder and the wonder grew day by day as the real facts were disclosed, and now people who are well informed as to the facts declare that half the truth has not been told of the golden treasures of the Yukon Valley.

As we have already said, there is no man today alive who knows more about this wonderful country than does Mr. Ladue. What makes his talk of it specially interesting and reliable is the fact that his knowledge of it is practical. It has not been gained from hearsay nor from desultory visits made now and then at certain favorable seasons of the year, but from steady living there through the long summer days and the long winter nights, year in and year out for 15 years, where he now owns the best mining claims on the Klondyke and its tributaries.

In presenting his book to the public we do so knowing that it is by an authority on the subject of which he writes. His first work entitled

is a brief description of the new gold regions, and anyone desiring authentic information should not fail to avail themselves of our

which places the facts in the possession of our readers. REMEMBER, that our office is the sole distributing point for this locality, having closed exclusive arrangements with Mr. Ladue's publishers.

The cover of the work is beautifully printed in red and gold, the gold showing one of the author's nuggets as nearly as it is possible to reproduce it on paper.

It is easy to secure a copy of "KLONDYKE NUGGETS." Cut out the Coupon and follow instructions.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Conkle Fourth street, a daughter.

City Treasurer Herbert yesterday sent $6,000 of school bonds to Cincinnati.

Officer Finley went on duty yesterday afternoon. He was sworn in at noon.

The sewer commission will hold its next meeting one week from tonight in Engineer George's office.

Mrs. Dr. Calhoun last evening entertained her Sunday school class at her home in East End.

Five baskets of ware were shipped to Allegheny this morning. This makes a total of 94 baskets for the week.

Misses Bird and Brilla Dawson, of Beaver, and Miss Georgia Dawson, of Ohioville, are the guests of Miss Mame Simms.

Doctor and Mrs. John Lloyd Lee last evening entertained the officers of the First Presbyterian church and their wives, at their home in West Market street.

Salem's leading business men held an enthusiastic meeting last night, and decided to form a land company and raise the bonus for the pottery. Another meeting will be held next week.

The repairs about the building in Market street formerly used as the young women's home, were completed today. The house will now be repainted and will be rented as a private residence.

A horse owned by the occupants of a shantyboat near the Specialty should be killed by the Humane agent. The animal has been sick for some time, and for the last three days has been lying on the beach.

Professor Harper has been notified of his appointment as musical director of the public schools, and is now at work on a schedule. He proposes to organize an orchestra composed of school children.

The Earnest Workers of the First M. E. church have acquitted themselves well in collecting money by the mite box system. They succeeded in collecting almost $50, the banner box, handed in by Miss Agnes Swan, containing $6.18.

The Democratic central committee met in city hall last evening and selected John W. Moore and Walter S. Cook as members of the county executive board. The meeting was in session but a short time when it adjourned to meet next Friday night.

This morning a lad about 14 years old, residing with his parents in Second street near the passenger station, took a lot of rubbish and dumped it on the wharf. The load was composed of two large mattresses, a lot of old bed clothing and wearing apparel. A number of people saw the action.

The water works trustees met last evening and paid bills. A communication from the Pleasant Heights Land company asking that the mains be extended to their property and offering to sell ground for a reservoir, was filed without recommendation. Rule No. 2 was amended so as to read that all extra boxes and stops shall be furnished to plumbers by the board at cost.

Doctor Norris this morning received a letter from Cleveland asking that the school board look up a family that moved from that city to Liverpool. The letter is unsigned, and states that the family is composed of a number of children under 14 years of age, and the parents do not want them to enter a public school. The name of the family is given, as well as the place where the father worked. The matter will be investigated.

Size For Size.

The company of one of the opera houses, at the close of a London season, had arrived at Liverpool to embark for a continental tour. The musical instruments were being shipped with the rest, and among them was the double bass, or "big fiddle," as it is also called, not cased as usual, for this member of the string family will stand a little rough treatment.

It soon attracted the attention of the jack tars, three or four of whom settled round, scrutinizing it with keen interest. By the order of an officer they soon dispersed, but not long afterward another bluff seaman was discovered secretly watching it with wondering eyes. He was asked his reason for standing thus idle.

"Well, yer know," said Jack, "I'm just waiting for to see the length of the bloke's arm that can play that there fiddle."—Musical Anecdotes.

OFFICE OF THE CITY CLERK,
EAST LIVERPOOL, Ohio, Sept. 18, 1897.

SEALED PROPOSALS will be received at this office until 12 m., Tuesday, Sept. 28th, 1897, for the paving of College street, from the C. & P. R. R. to Robinson street, according to the plans and specifications on file in the office of the City Engineer.
By order of Council.
JAMES N. HANLEY,
City Clerk.

TIRES THAT LEAK.

The Morgan & Wright single-tube quick-repair tire must be regarded as a distinct improvement in bicycle tire construction. It has the following advantages:

While punctures in it can be repaired with plugs, or semi-liquid injections, as well as in any other single-tube tire, it can be permanently repaired by using the quick-repair strip inside the tire. See cut No. 1.

By injecting M. & W. quick-repair cement through the puncture, and then pressing down on the tire with the thumb, as in cut No. 2, the repair strip inside is picked up by the cement, thus closing the puncture, as in cut No. 3.

The Morgan & Wright single-tube quick-repair tire is guaranteed not porous. This is on account of the way in which it is made. Nearly every rider has heard of tires that "leak like a sieve."

Many tires rot, because water gets into the fabric between the two layers of rubber. The Morgan & Wright fabric is proof against moisture.

Everybody knows how comfortable Morgan & Wright tires are, and yet how seldom they puncture. This is due to the fabric.

Ask any bicycle dealer whether other tires last as long as Morgan & Wright tires. Ask, also, what the Morgan & Wright guarantee means. Morgan & Wright tires are repaired free of charge, at the factory in Chicago or at any of the Morgan & Wright free repair shops, located in the principal cities.

N. B.—When you have a puncture, get right off. Riding a tire flat, when it has a tack or nail in it, may damage it considerably.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Conkle Fourth street, a daughter.

City Treasurer Herbert yesterday sent $6,000 of school bonds to Cincinnati.

Officer Finley went on duty yesterday afternoon. He was sworn in at noon.

The sewer commission will hold its next meeting one week from tonight in Engineer George's office.

Mrs. Dr. Calhoun last evening entertained her Sunday school class at her home in East End.

Five baskets of ware were shipped to Allegheny this morning. This makes a total of 94 baskets for the week.

Misses Bird and Brilla Dawson, of Beaver, and Miss Georgia Dawson, of Ohioville, are the guests of Miss Mame Simms.

Doctor and Mrs. John Lloyd Lee last evening entertained the officers of the First Presbyterian church and their wives, at their home in West Market street.

Salem's leading business men held an enthusiastic meeting last night, and decided to form a land company and raise the bonus for the pottery. Another meeting will be held next week.

The repairs about the building in Market street formerly used as the young women's home, were completed today. The house will now be repainted and will be rented as a private residence.

A horse owned by the occupants of a shantyboat near the Specialty should be killed by the Humane agent. The animal has been sick for some time, and for the last three days has been lying on the beach.

Professor Harper has been notified of his appointment as musical director of the public schools, and is now at work on a schedule. He proposes to organize an orchestra composed of school children.

The Earnest Workers of the First M. E. church have acquitted themselves well in collecting money by the mite box system. They succeeded in collecting almost $50, the banner box, handed in by Miss Agnes Swan, containing $6.18.

The Democratic central committee met in city hall last evening and selected John W. Moore and Walter S. Cook as members of the county executive board. The meeting was in session but a short time when it adjourned to meet next Friday night.

This morning a lad about 14 years old, residing with his parents in Second street near the passenger station, took a lot of rubbish and dumped it on the wharf. The load was composed of two large mattresses, a lot of old bed clothing and wearing apparel. A number of people saw the action.

The water works trustees met last evening and paid bills. A communication from the Pleasant Heights Land company asking that the mains be extended to their property and offering to sell ground for a reservoir, was filed without recommendation. Rule No. 2 was amended so as to read that all extra boxes and stops shall be furnished to plumbers by the board at cost.

Doctor Norris this morning received a letter from Cleveland asking that the school board look up a family that moved from that city to Liverpool. The letter is unsigned, and states that the family is composed of a number of children under 14 years of age, and the parents do not want them to enter a public school. The name of the family is given, as well as the place where the father worked. The matter will be investigated.

Size For Size.

The company of one of the opera houses, at the close of a London season, had arrived at Liverpool to embark for a continental tour. The musical instruments were being shipped with the rest, and among them was the double bass, or "big fiddle," as it is also called, not cased as usual, for this member of the string family will stand a little rough treatment.

It soon attracted the attention of the jack tars, three or four of whom settled round, scrutinizing it with keen interest. By the order of an officer they soon dispersed, but not long afterward another bluff seaman was discovered secretly watching it with wondering eyes. He was asked his reason for standing thus idle.

For Tickets, and help secure the greatest musical treat this place has ever had.

Remenyi has a splendid company with him.

going finern silk. Then it come march-ing back loudern a brass band, same as if the fiddel said April fool old man, I was only playing off dead for fun, and now I've come to life again, till you couldn't set still.

He played some funny business after that and kept the fiddel busyern a house afire. He rattled the strings like popcorn, then made them go like a whissel. Next it was comine like a big cat fight, moren a hundred, and Home, Sweet Home and the Fishers' Hornpipe was both going to onct. I tell you it was a woole volcaner of music, speshully the last tune, and I thoat heed cut the fiddel in too. I wish Remenyi would come here again.

A mouth organ is n. g. I am going to buy a fiddel for 2 dollars.
